But memories are often very insistent and will not be repelled, and Edith were in a state would have believed that if it had not been - Wilfrid had never fled at the thought of his escape. If Edith were not an honourable girl Mrs. Plowden might have taken him into court, and the magistrate had hauled him off her door step, and now might have made out a maintenance order against him - five shillings.

Conditions of Sale

1. Rejection of Bids. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The Buyer. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for resale the lot so in dispute.

3. Identification and Part Payment by Buyer. The name of the buyer of each lot shall be given immediately on the sale thereof and, when so required, each buyer shall sign a card giving the lot number, amount for which sold, and his or her name and address.

Payment at the actual time of the sale shall be made of all or such part of the purchase prices as may be required.

If the two foregoing conditions are not complied with, the lot or lots so purchased may at the option of the auctioneer be put up again and resold.

4. Risk After Purchase. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and thereafter neither the consignor nor the Association is responsible for the loss or any damage to any article occasioned by theft, fire, breakage or any cause.

5. Delivery of Purchases. Delivery of any purchases will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made at the place of sale or at the storage warehouse to which purchases may have been removed.

Deliveries at the American Art Galleries will be made only between the hours of nine a. m. and one p. m. on sales' days and on other days—except holidays, when no deliveries will be made—between the hours of nine a. m. and five p. m.

Deliveries at places of sale other than the American Art Galleries will be made only during the forenoon following the day of sale unless by special notice or arrangement to the contrary.

Deliveries at the Storage warehouse to which goods may have been sent will be made on any day other than holidays between the hours of nine and five.

Deliveries of any purchases of small articles likely to be lost or mislaid may be made at the discretion of the auctioneer during the session of the sale at which they were sold.

6. Storage in Default of Prompt Payment and Calling for Goods. Articles not paid for in full and either not called for by the purchaser or delivered upon his or her order by noon of the day following that of the sale will be turned over by the Association to some carter to be carried to and stored in some warehouse until the time of the delivery therefrom to the purchaser, and the cost of such cartage and storage will be charged against the purchaser and the risk of loss or damage occasioned by such removal or storage will be upon the purchaser.

NOTE: The limited space of the Delivery Rooms of the Association makes the above requirements necessary, and it is not alone for the benefit of the Association, but also for that of its patrons, whose goods otherwise would have to be so crowded as to be subject to damage and loss.

7. Shipping. Boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

8. Guaranty. The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly and endeavours therein and also at the actual time of sale to point out any error, defect or imperfection, but guaranty is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of any lot and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing or imperfection not noted or pointed out. Every lot is sold "as is" and without recourse.

Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, and the Association will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued and in its judgment may thereafter sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby will become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without foundation.

9. Buying on Order. Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchases so made will be subject to the foregoing conditions of sale except that in the event of purchases consisting of one or more books for one who has not himself or through his agent been personally at the exhibition or sale, any book may be returned within ten days of the date of sale and the purchaser will be refunded the purchase money therefor, if the book in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should be also stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced copies of the catalogue of any sale or any session thereof will be furnished by the Association at charges commensurate with the duties involved in copying the necessary information from the records of the Association.

No. 22. AMERICAN REVOLUTION.—Continued]

426 SUPERB PORTRAITS, of the very choicest quality, mainly folio prints, the others having been finely inlaid to size on a high quality paper. The portraits comprise practically every Notable mentioned in the work and includes a large number of very fine early prints, among them a long series of contemporary issues of the greatest rarity, making a grand total of 751 extra pieces such as Autographs, Views, Portraits, Maps and Plans, placed in their proper places throughout the 25 volumes.

"It is not too much to characterize this work as monumental. For some thirty years, Mr. Stevens took notes of all the material he could find relating to the period of the American Revolution, and in this vast collection embodies 2107 documents, reproduced in facsimile, chiefly from the Public Record Office, the Royal (Military) Institution, the Tower of London, and the British Museum, in England, the French Bureau des Affaires Etrangères, in France, and the private collections of the Marquis of Abergavenny, the Earl of Carlisle, the Earl of Dartmouth, Lord Auckland, and of Mr. Stevens; and the editor does not exaggerate the value of the result when he asserts that 'it is like taking up a whole collection of the State Paper Office of London or Paris, and transferring it to an American library.' A condition made by the Public Record Office in London, in giving access to all papers, 'whether general, confidential, secret, or most secret,' was, Mr. Stevens states, 'that I should take the whole, or leave the whole of each individual document, and that I should garble none, as had been done by two most eminent historians; and a little experimentation with printed texts convinced him that it was impossible to obtain accurate printing. 'In this dilemma I conceived the notion of attempting to solve the difficulty by substituting the art of photography, with its incontrovertible and recognized accuracy, as the mode of making my further copies of original manuscripts. Each document is an absolute facsimile, without any editorial words or explanation to alter its appearance as compared with the original, except an identifying mark and number for reference; but annexed to it is a separate statement, or title-page, with corresponding mark and number, indicating its endorsements, enclosures, seals, memoranda, etc., with various notes and references, the location of its original, its duplicates, triplicates, etc., if any, and if printed, where. There is also added in a note in a legible handwriting, a translation into English, when the document originated in another language. . . . The translations are intended to be literal rather than literary. They are given upon the advice of some of the best known students.' So well has the work been done, that the editor's claim that his facsimiles, 'for all practical purposes, are the originals themselves,' is no exaggeration. Indeed, in his initial experiments in reproducing them, he states that he was 'both complimented and grieved to find that some facsimiles were taken to be originals, and some originals were pronounced to be facsimiles,' leading him to have special paper manufactured for the work. Volume XXV is a most admirable Index with cross-references, chronological lists, etc." PAUL LEICESTER FORD, in The Literature of American History. Edited by J. N. Larned, 1902.

EXTREMELY RARE TRACT RELATING TO SIR WILLIAM COURTEN, THE ORIGINAL GRANTEE OF THE ISLAND OF BARBADOES, AND HIS SON, WILLIAM COURTEN, ESQ. The present pamphlet relates almost entirely to the Courtens' East-India trade. IT IS OF AMERICAN INTEREST because of Sir William's intimate connection with the Island of Barbadoes, and its mention of the same.

Although Sir William Courten was the discoverer of the Island of Barbadoes, and was granted the ownership of the Island by the Crown, it was disputed by others, and he never was able to make good his claim.

56. ASSOCIATION BINDING. FRANCO (NICOLÒ). Le Pistole Vulgari di M. Nicolo Franco. [Printer's mark and motto.] Small 8vo, contemporary red morocco, gilt edges, some leaves soiled. Venice, 1542

UNRECORDED. The DEDICATION COPY to Monsignor Leone Orsino, the Bishop Elect of Frejus. THE ONLY COPY KNOWN. The very fine Venetian binding elaborately tooled in gold. The centre of the side is impressed with a lion rampant in gold, within an oval surrounded by a graceful arabesque ornament. The Orsini Rose is repeated several times. The back is panelled and the centre of each panel contains the Lion with the Rose of the Orsini in the four corners. AN UNUSUALLY FINE AND EARLY PIECE OF VENETIAN WORKMANSHIP.

No bibliographer refers to this, the FIRST EDITION. The earliest edition in octavo mentioned by Brunet is that of 1562, twenty years later. The author, Nicolo Franco, was the friend of Pietro Aretino, the Satirical Poet. They quarrelled on account of this very work—Le Pistole. The last poem in the book—"All' Invidia"—seemed to Aretino to be directed against him. Therefore he attacked Franco in, and the latter replied with his commentary upon, the Priapea, attributed to Virgil.

MADAME DE POMPADOUR'S COPY

57. ASSOCIATION BINDING. PLUTARCH. Les Œuvres Meslees de Plvtarque, translatees de Grec en François, reueuës & corrigees en ceste seconde Edition en plusieurs passages par le Translateur [Jacques Amyot]. Tome I, vol. Paris: Vascosan, M. D. LXXIIII [1574]

MADAME DE POMPADOUR'S COPY. The Arms of this "uncrowned Queen," the mistress of Louis XV, are three towers; but the "Rodogune" (reproduced by Quentin-Bauchart, plate XXI), from her Library, is impressed with a single tower only, as in the bindings of the present five volumes.

These five important volumes formed part of Madame de Pompadour's set of "Œuvres de Plutarque" in 21 vols., mentioned by Quentin-Bauchart, in his "Les Femmes Bibliophiles," Vol. II, page 83 (No. 91), his description being taken from Madame de Pompadour's Library Catalogue.

These books were bound about 1650 by Florimond Badier. The border at the top and bottom of the backs is identical with that reproduced by Thoinan at page 162, in "Les Relieurs Français," as one most frequently used by that Master Binder.

From the library of Madame de Pompadour, this book passed into the FAMOUS LAMOIGNON COLLECTION. The Lamoignon book-label is in each of these volumes.

The translator, George Sandys, was one of the undertakers named in the Virginia Charter of 1611, and in 1621 was appointed Treasurer of the Virginia Company and sailed to America with Sir Francis Wyatt. For several years Sandys was a member of the Virginia Council. The first five books of the Metamorphoses were finished and printed in 1621, and a second edition was printed, but apparently no copy of either is known. The remaining ten books were translated during the early years of his stay in Virginia, two being completed "amongst the roaring of the seas," and thus this volume is considered to be the first great poetical composition of America. Editions were printed in London in 1626 and 1628.

The present magnificent royal book is dedicated to Charles I. It was presented to his son the boy-prince by his royal father at the time of his establishment as Prince of Wales in 1638 when but eight years of age.

PHILIP MELANCHTHON'S COPY

65. ASSOCIATION VOLUME. CAESAR (JULIUS). De bello Gallico, libri VIII; De bello civili, de bello Alexandrino, libri VI. [Colophon, recto leaf 145.] Anno Christi. M.CCCCLxxvii. Die uero. x. Mensis Februarii. Hoc opus diligenter emendatum Antonius zarotus parmensis . . . diligentia impressit. Roman type, 168 leaves (including one blank), 41 long lines to the page. First page of text (a 2) surrounded with broad floral border beautifully illuminated in burnished gold and colors by hand and including coat-of-arms in lower portion, with historiated illuminated initial letter at beginning of text; also 14 other initial letters illuminated in burnished gold and colors with partial borders similarly illuminated. Folio, old mottled calf, worn and broken at joints, some margins need repairs. [Milan: Anthony Zarotus, 1477]

THIS VOLUME WAS THE PROPERTY OF PHILIP MELANCHTHON, THE GREAT GERMAN REFORMATION WRITER AND FRIEND OF LUTHER, AND CONTAINS NUMEROUS MARGINAL ANNOTATIONS AND INTERLINEAR CORRECTIONS IN HIS AUTOGRAPH THROUGHOUT THE VOLUME, with a few additional notes which appear to be in another, later hand. The authenticity of the Melanchthon ownership is vouched for by Dr. Kloss, from whose collection it came, and who is well known as an authority and collector of Luther and Melanchthon material.

Aside from the interest attached to the provenance of the book, it is a fine specimen of printing from the Zarotus' press in Milan, in excellent condition excepting for the few stains mentioned above, with wide clean margins, and with the original blank leaf (folio 146, sig. s 8) between text and Index. Hain, No. 4215.

The Dunwoody-Dr. Kloss copy, with bookplate of Dr. Kloss.

66. ASSOCIATION VOLUME. HORAE (B. V. M.) Secundum usum Romanum. Grece. 16mo, antique calf. Paris: Christianus Wechel, 1538

This copy is important on account of its earlier possessors. The most noteworthy whose signature is at the head of the title-page and has been closely cut by the binder, is that of "Thomas Steuardus," kinsman of Mary Queen of Scots. He was brother to Robert Steward, the last Prior and first Dean of Ely. Thomas, who died in 1568, was Pastor of the English Church at Frankfurt during Mary's reign, and Canon of Ely from 1560 until his death. No other book from his Library is known.

The second signature in the book is that of Gulielmus Laurentius, a seventeenth century writer. The "Horae" was afterwards in the possession of White Kennett, Bishop of Peterborough, the voluminous author and book-collector, who bequeathed a fine library to the Cathedral of Peterborough, where Mary, Queen of Scots was buried.

VERY RARE. This edition differs from the Aldine and has additional prayers at the end. Only a very limited number were printed.

67. ASSOCIATION VOLUME. DRAMATA SACRA. Comoediæ atque Tragœdiæ, aliquot é Veteri Testamento desumptæ, quibus præcipuæ ipsius historiæ ita eleganter in scenam producuntur, ut vix quicquam in hic argumenti genere, iuventuti Christianæ proponi utilius prossit: magna parte nunc primum in lucem editæ. 2 vols. small 8vo, old citron French morocco, sides with gilt borders, gilt back with leather labels, gilt edges, marbled end-leaves.

72. BASKERVILLE PRESS. VIRGIL. Publii Virgilii Maronis Bucolica, Georgica, et Aeneis. Title red ruled in single and double lines, margins red ruled throughout, by hand. Royal 4to, full contemporary red straight-grain morocco, single gilt fillet on sides, flat back with divisional gilt bands of alternate small circles and rosettes bordered with dotted lines, inside gilt borders, gilt edges, in the manner of ROGER PAYNE.

Birmingham: Typis Johannis Baskerville, 1757

FIRST EDITION OF THE FIRST BOOK FROM THE FAMOUS BASKERVILLE PRESS, BEAUTIFULLY BOUND, in the manner of ROGER PAYNE. Variation number 3 according to the description in the Baskerville Press Bibliography by Straus and Dent, with page 143 correctly numbered and having correct catchword "Ad," with page 144 beginning correctly "Ad Soceros," page 316 misnumbered 319, and the headings on pages 342 and 372 reading "Liber Decimus Aeneidos," and "Liber Undecimus Aeneidos." The present copy contains no leaves of subscribers' names, these leaves perhaps having been extracted by the binder, although the similar copy in the British Museum also has no subscribers' names.

EXTRA-ILLUSTRATED by the insertion of an engraved portrait of Virgil, and 101 plates engraved by Hollar, Lombart and Faithorne after Cleyn, originally engraved for Ogilby's translation of Virgil, 1654 and later used in Dryden's translation, 1697. The plates have been trimmed and backed with plain paper similar to that of the printed text, with red ruled margins around the plates and also on the blank reverse of each. As Roger Payne is reputed to have done his own preparing and forwarding, it is probable that the backing of the plates and the marginal rulings, as well as the actual binding of the volume, are all the WORK OF THIS MASTER BINDER.

From the Syston Park collection, with bookplate, where it was described as being in a binding by Roger Payne.

73. BASKERVILLE PRESS. BIBLE. EXTRA-ILLUSTRATED. The Holy Bible, Containing the Old Testament and the New: with the Apocrypha: Translated out of the Original Tongues, with Annotations. 1 vol. in 4 vols. folio, newly and handsomely bound in full crushed English brown morocco, with elaborate gilt decorated sides, richly gilt backs, doublures and end-leaves of light brown brocade, gilt inside borders, gilt tops, uncut.

Birmingham: John Baskerville, 1772

One of the great masterpieces of printing and especially desirable for the remarkable series of copperplates which have been added to the book.

ONE VOLUME EXTENDED TO FOUR VOLUMES BY THE INSERTION OF NEARLY 1800 SUPERB ENGRAVED PLATES, ALL OF EIGHTEENTH CENTURY ENGRAVERS. Practically all of these plates are of folio size, the same as the book, consequently they required no inlaying. The smaller plates have been carefully inlaid to size, except a few which came just a trifle short in height. The engravers of these copperplates take in nearly all the celebrated artists of the period in Europe. The imagination displayed by these artists is sometimes a bit fantastic, some of the figures being of the period of the Eighteenth Century rather than that of the Bible. They are, however, a splendid gallery of copperplate engravings, showing an immense variety of scenes, natural history objects, ceremonies, etc.

74. BASKERVILLE PRESS. SHAFTESBURY (ANTHONY, EARL OF). Characteristicks of Men, Manners, Opinions, Times. Engraved portrait, with head and tail-pieces by Geibelin. 3 vols. tall 8vo, scored russia, neatly and skilfully re-backed.

London: by the Deputies of Christopher Baker, 1599

The "Breeches" Version. With "The Booke of Psalms collected into English Meeter."

There are many editions bearing this date, which while agreeing closely are yet distinct. The phenomena of the various editions described under the year 1599, and the very similar edition of 1633, constitute one of the most curious problems in the Bibliography of the English Bible. N. Pocock investigated the matter with great care and published the results of his research in the Bibliographer, Vol. 3. The present is edition D and was unknown to Lea Wilson.

København: Kongelige Waysenhuses Bogtrykkerie, 1783

A REMARKABLE CONTEMPORARY DANISH BINDING, with applied silver ornaments, a style very popular in the 17th and 18th Centuries. The finest work of this class was beaten up by hand, the material used for the ground-work being generally a black fish-skin, morocco being rarely used.

The present is a splendid example of Danish Eighteenth Century work, entirely hand-wrought, and was bound as a wedding gift from a Danish bridegroom to his bride.

A Splendid Example of Needlework Binding and of the utmost importance, being the DEDICATION COPY to Cardinal Cenci.

Benevento, the capital of that Province, about 45 miles distant from Naples, boasts, next to Rome, to be the most ancient town in Italy and perhaps no other Italian City possesses so many remains of antiquity. This Poem in honor of the City is dedicated to Cardinal Cenci and this copy was bound especially for him.

Needlework and velvet bindings of this period are of the greatest rarity and a finely preserved and important "Association" volume like the present is very rarely seen outside of Museums.

Ex Ducali Campidonensi Typographeo, 1734

VERY HANDSOME BINDING WITH SILVER MOUNTINGS, IN EXCELLENT STATE OF PRESERVATION. Interiorly the Missal is in good condition for the most part, but there are repairs on a few leaves, several margins have been restored and new markers attached, a few leaves slightly torn.

Bound in at the end of the Missal proper are the following,—Proprium Missarum de Sanctis. . . . Passavij, 1736; and, Proprium Dioecesis Frisingensis Missali Romano etiam antiquiori accommodatum. Monachii, 1796; also, an engraving has been inserted in first part of the volume.

THIS REMARKABLE MISSAL came directly from the "Pension Schloss Fürstenstein," Berchtesgaden, Bavaria, which in former days was the summer residence of the Archbishops of Bavaria, where the Missal was used in the Archbishop's Chapel, which was later the diningroom of the Pension. The Missal came into the possession of the present owner with the house, when she bought it some years ago. A post-card picture of the Pension, and a letter relating to the house and Missal are laid in.

119. BINDING. SOPHOCLES. Sophocles Tragædiæ, Græce. Small 4to, full old brown morocco, both sides covered with gold fleur-de-lis, and stamped in center of each cover with the coat-of-arms of Trinity College, Dublin. Skillfully rebacked. Paris, 1552-1553

The volume was given as an award of merit, by the Trinity College of Dublin to Edward Johnson, and Certificate to this effect is pasted on the inner cover. A large gold Coat of Arms of the College was stamped on both covers, presumably at the time of presentation. The binding and tooling bear evidence of being French, and compare in minutæ with "Les Oraisons de Ciceron" bound by Antoine Ruette for Pierre Siguier, Magistrate of France, most of whose books found their way into the Bibliothèque Nationale.

It contains numerous marginal annotations, in an old hand, probably that of Antony Roland, whose name is written on title-page.

120. BINDING. SQUIRE (JANE). A Proposal to Determine our Longitude. 8vo, full contemporary red morocco, gilt, decorated with a fine wide floral border in gold made with a roll. The center of each cover is ornamented with a circle quartered. The ring of this circle is formed from a small floral tool; within the quarterings are longitudinal characters. At the top of the circle is the letter S and at the bottom the letter N. The back is very richly tooled with floral, shell-like ornaments and rings, and dots in gold.

London: Printed for the Author, 1743

PRIVATELY PRINTED. APPARENTLY UNKNOWN TO ALL BIBLIOGRAPHIES. But very few copies were printed. The present is a LARGE AND THICK PAPER copy, and has the chart explanatory of the longitude following the title.

The binding is a remarkable example of English work of the period.

The binding of this volume is an excellent specimen of Boyet's fine work. Mr. Michelmores, in his The Doublure, says of it,—“This style of binding was at its best about the close of the seventeenth and beginning of the eighteenth century. The excellence of these bindings can best be judged from the forwarding.”

126. BINDING WITH DOUBLURES. NEW TESTAMENT, GREEK. Nouum Iesv Christi D.N. Testamentum. Cum duplici interpretatione, D. Small 8vo, full contemporary claret morocco, blind tooled fillet borders on sides, back panels outlined in blind, gilt-lettered title; doublures of black morocco with deep gilt dentelle borders, gilt fleur-de-lis design on rims of covers; gilt edges, BY BOYET, some small corner repairs. Middle Seventeenth Century*

MICHELMORE, in his The Doublure, says,—“This type of binding, generally known as Jansenist on account of the severe plainness of the exterior, in reference to the austere rule of the Jansenist community, came into fashion in the second half of the seventeenth century, and was especially popular towards the end. The binder most celebrated for this class of binding was Luc Antoine Boyet and the present remarkable binding is his work.”

Referring to the manuscript, Mr. Michelmores says,—“This very choice devotional Manuscript is the work of the eminent seventeenth-century calligraphist—NICHOLAS JARRY. It is moreover twin-brother to the Jerry Manuscript with an exactly similar title which sold in the Parisot sale in 1856.”

The author, Jean Adrian Helvetius, whose autograph signature is found at end of Dedication, was born in Holland about 1661, died in Paris in 1727. He was the discoverer of the medicinal properties of the root Ipecacuanna, with which he successfully treated cases of dysentery in the Dauphin, son of Louis XIV, and others, and was later Physician to the Regent Phillippe, Duc d'Orléans.

A manuscript note on fly-leaf, in an old hand, attributes the binding to Du Seuil, but Mr. Micheltore states that the fleur-de-lis tooling on the rims is found only in Boyet's bindings, and therefore attributes the work to Boyet.

UNUSUALLY BEAUTIFUL BINDING. The work was issued in a single volume but has been divided by the binder at "Les Dimanches," and an engraving with blank cartouche has been inserted as title in the second part, with the title and imprint carefully lettered upon it by hand.

Mr. Michelmores, in his The Doublure, says of these volumes,—“The whole is a very fine and unusual example of early Eighteenth Century French work. It is probably the work of Augustin Du Seuil, Royal Binder to Louis XV.”

Hoe's library. He was particularly interested in the art of bookbinding and that department of his collection was of surpassing interest. Not only were all the great modern binders represented, but there was a remarkable array of the work of the earlier masters, many rich in the interest of past ownership and other associations.

Foremost in importance were the volumes bound for that distinguished lover of books, Jean Grolier, the dates ranging between 1516 and 1552. There are several bindings of great historical interest, produced chiefly at Lyons and Paris, for Francis I, Henry the Dauphin, Henry II, and Diana of Poitiers, Henry III and others. Richly ornamented bindings by Nicholas and Clovis Eve, Le Gascon and others worthy of mention. A feature of the collection is the large number of bindings bound for Kings, Queens, Great Book Collectors and "Femmes Bibliophiles."

There are numerous reproductions of examples by Cobden-Sanderson, Trautz-Bauzonnet, Chambolle-Duru, Cuzin, and mosaic specimens from the Club Bindery.

JUNIUS BRUTUS BOOTH'S COPY

174. BYRON (GEORGE GORDON, LORD). Sardanapalus, a Tragedy. The Two Foscari, a Tragedy. Cain, a Mystery. 8vo, original boards with new back and corner pieces, entirely uncut. Preserved in a polished calf case.
London: John Murray, 1821

FIRST EDITION. This important and interesting copy belonged to JUNIUS BRUTUS BOOTH, the eminent Shakespearean actor and rival of Edmund Kean, and has, on the title-page, his autograph signature "Junius B. Booth. Philada. 1823." The book is annotated, passages are marked and others are altered throughout in the hand-writing of the great actor. There are 187 annotations and corrections and they constitute Booth's ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT of the dramatization of "Sardanapalus" and "The Two Foscari" acted in the United States.

Among these notes and annotations Booth has added the names of the actors on tour with him who filled the rôles when the tragedies were produced in the United States; he has noted whether the entrances and exits are to be made right or left; marked passages for deletion, alterations in the directions, scenery, etc. For example, near the end of Act I of "The Two Foscari" are the words "Exit Loredano." Booth has altered this to "Loredano smiles bitterly and exit." The other numerous annotations are equally interesting.

On the title-page of the "Two Foscari," Booth has written that it was "first performed at Baltimore, U. S., October 12th, 1822. Warren and Woods, Managers, Holiday Street." This statement is of the greatest importance, as it is believed to be the FIRST KNOWN RECORD of the fact. The Dictionary of National Biography does not state that either "Sardanapalus" or "The Two Foscari" were ever dramatized. Indeed that publication infers that no dramatized versions ever appeared. It was during his first visit to America in 1821 that Booth took this important copy of Sardanapalus with him and altered it.

Junius Brutus Booth was the father of John Wilkes Booth, the American actor, who assassinated President Lincoln.

The present is the only book with this extremely interesting association interest of this great actor that has occurred.

175. BYRON (GEORGE GORDON, LORD). The Works of Lord Byron. A New Revised and Enlarged Edition. Illustrated with a large number of engraved portraits, views and facsimiles. 13 vols. royal 8vo, original cloth, morocco backs, gilt tops, uncut.
London: John Murray, 1898-1901

FINE SET OF THE LARGE PAPER EDITION, of which but 250 copies were printed on hand-made paper: comprising,—

Poetry. Edited by Ernest Hartley Coleridge. 7 vols.

Letters and Journals. Edited by R. E. Prothero. 6 vols.

176. CAMBRIDGE CLASSICS. With numerous illustrations, mainly on Japanese vellum paper, the frontispieces in two states, one colored, the other on India paper. Together, 12 vols. imperial 8vo, three-quarter olive green crushed levant morocco, gilt backs and tops, Morris end-papers, uncut, one back slightly faded.
Boston: Houghton Mifflin and Company, 1906

LARGE PAPER EDITION, limited to 650 copies, of which this is, No. 105. Beautifully printed with large type. Generally considered to be the best edition of these classics: comprising,—

THACKERAY'S SET OF "CAROLINE TRACTS"

180. CAROLINE DIVORCE SCANDAL TRACTS. A collection of 48 pamphlets, of a scurrilous and satirical order, all relating to the Adultery Trial started by George IV. against his Queen. With numerous colored caricatures, many of them folding plates. Bound in 5 vols. old half pink calf, leather labels. Each volume in half morocco case. London, 1813-1822

WILLIAM MAKEPEACE THACKERAY'S SET with his autograph signature W. M. Thackeray in his characteristic hand on the title of the first tract in Vol. I, and on the title of the first tract in Vol. III.

This collection was undoubtedly formed by Thackeray for use in his work on the "Four Georges," 1861, from which the following is an excerpt,—"As I read her trial in history, I vote she is not guilty. I don't say it is an impartial verdict; but as one reads her story the heart bleeds for the kindly, generous, outraged creature. Spite of her follies, the great hearty people of England loved, and protected her, and pitied her."

The illustrations are mainly the work of Robert Cruikshank, Heath, Huston, and others. Many of these are extra-plates not published with the tracts and appear to be the work of Rowlandson and Gillray, although they are not signed, which is not to be wondered at considering their scurrilous nature, as many of them are of the extremely gross character so much affected by these men.

Most of these scurrilous tracts were published by Hone and some other men who did not always use their own names. They form an interesting side-light on the effort of George IV to get rid of his Queen by charging her with adultery. Nearly every wit of the day had a hand at writing these tracts and their exact authorship will never be known.

AUTHOR'S ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT

182. CARTWRIGHT (JULIA). ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT, of "Isabella d'Este, Marchioness of Mantua, 1474-1539. A Study of the Renaissance in Italy." Closely written on 544 quarto leaves, one side only. Handsomely bound in 2 vols. 4to, full blue levant morocco, gilt tops.

This work was published in 1903 and at once took a front place in the literature relating to the Renaissance. A study of the leading female exponent of the d'Este family, the most ancient among those which has preserved its power and titles to the present day. Few historical works equal this in picturesque value.

183. CERVANTES (MIGUEL DE). El Ingenioso Hidalgo Don Quixote de la Mancha compuesto por Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra. Nueva Edicion corregida por la Real Academia Espanola. Superbly illustrated with Portrait, Map, 4 frontispieces and 31 full-page Engravings by Castillo, Carnicero, Barranco, Brunete, Gil, Ferro, engraved by Muntaner, and others, also 25 headpieces and 20 tailpieces by the same Artists and Engravers, as well as 13 ornamental letters without signatures. 4 vols. royal 4to, full original Spanish calf, gilt backs and edges. Madrid: Ibarra, 1780

The Handsomest Edition of Cervantes as well as the most authentic text.

The engravings were designed by the most famous Spanish Artists of the time. They have been used in many subsequent editions, forming the basis of nearly all later designs for Don Quixote; however, it is only in this First Edition that the beauty of design and delicacy of execution is preserved in all its freshness. See Ash-bee's "Iconography of Don Quixote," London, 1895 (No. 72), for a lengthy description of these important engravings.

This edition has a life of Cervantes and an analysis of the Quixote by Vicente de Los Rios.

This copy is in excellent condition; the text and plates quite clean. Except for a few slight repairs, very skillfully executed, the bindings are in excellent condition.

184. CERVANTES (MIGUEL DE). The History of the Ingenious Gentleman Don Quixote of La Mancha. Translated from the Spanish by P. A. Motteux. With illustrations on China and Holland paper. 4 vols. in 8 vols. royal 8vo, beautifully bound in full red French levant morocco, janseneste, doublures of green French levant morocco, with gilt borders, green watered-silk fly-leaves, gilt tops, uncut. Bound in one vol. folio, cloth, with gilt lettered title on back.

This and the 24 following items comprise the most important Collections of Manuscripts by the author of "Sherlock Holmes," yet offered at public sale in America.

This manuscript is entirely in the handwriting of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, including a list of "dramatis personae," 7 pages of reference notes and quotations, and the following title,—"Micah Clarke his statement As made to his three Grandchildren Gervas Reuben and Joseph during the hard winter of 1734. Wherein is contained A full report of certain passages in his life together with some account of his Journey from Havant to Taunton with Colonel Decimus Saxon, the adventures that befell them during the Western Rebellion and their intercourse with George Duke of Monmouth, Lord Gray and other persons of quality. Compiled day by day from his own narration by Joseph Clarke, and never previously set forth in print. Now for the first time collected, corrected and given to the public by A. Conan Doyle."

"Micah Clarke" was first published in London in 1888, and was the first long novel by Doyle to be published. After his fame had been established by his "Sherlock Holmes" stories, it was reissued by Harpers in New York, 1894, and Longmans in London, 1895.

AUTHOR'S ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT

239. DOYLE (SIR ARTHUR CONAN). AUTHOR'S ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT. "Rodney Stone." Written in ink on one side of 530 pieces of paper of various sizes, with corrections and cancellations by the author. Bound in 2 vols. small oblong 4to, cloth, with gilt lettered titles on backs.

[See Reproduction of Autograph]

This manuscript is entirely in the handwriting of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, with his chapter arrangement. The appearance of this manuscript shows that it was probably first written on folio sheets of paper and then cut up into the various sized pieces for a different arrangement from the original draft. These pieces have been in many instances numbered in large blue and black pencil figures across the writing to show their sequence. An interesting specimen showing the method used by the author in building up this work.

First published, London, 1896; the First American Edition was published by Appleton the same year.

"I believe you're right" said he "But anyhow I'm going up to have a look at it"

"Don't, Jim, don't!" I cried.

"Just, Roddy, you can stay here if you are afraid. I won't be more than a minute. There's no use going on a ghost hunt unless — my God, there's something coming down the stairs!"

I heard it too, a shuffling footstep in the room above, and then a creak from the steps, and then another creak, and another. I saw Jim's face as if it had been carved out of ivory, with his parted lips and his staring eyes fixed upon the black square of the stair-opening. He still held the light, but his fingers twitched, and with every twitch the shadows sprang from the walls to the ceiling. As to myself my knees gave way under me and I found myself on the floor crouching down behind Jim with a scream frozen in my throat. And still the step came slowly from stair to stair.

Then hardly daring to look and yet unable to turn away my eyes I saw a figure dimly outlined in the corner upon which the stair opened. There was

The Prefatory Note reads that:—"The following 'Ghosts' are raised by the simple process of writing a signature and then folding the paper whilst the ink is wet; after which a few lines complete the apparition.

It having been suggested to the Members of the Club that their 'Ghosts' might have a certain interest to Amateurs of the Stage, the Book has been compiled in the hope that a sum—greatly exceeding its value—may be added to some National Fund through the generosity of some purchaser.

The Club wish to acknowledge their indebtedness to Mrs. Ione Hall and Mrs. H. M. Paul, who have added the necessary embellishments."

268. EARLY PRINTING. CHRYSOSTOM. Super Quinquagesimum Psalmum. Small 4to, vellum. [Cologne: Printer of Augustinus de fide] 1473

This edition belongs to a group of books printed at Cologne, three of which have a date 1473. Later researches on Cologne printing have proved it probable that the printer of this group may also be the printer of the group assigned to the "Printer of Dictys," and that both groups are the work of Goiswin Gops de Euskirchen, who printed some books at Cologne in 1475. The "Dictys" group is the earliest, then come the "Augustinus de fide" books, of which three are dated 1473, and two mention the place of printing, Cologne. Of this separate work of Chrysostom four editions appear to be known. The present copy has been rubricated throughout. It has manuscript signatures and foliation.

THIS IS THE ONLY QUARTO PRINTED BY THE PRINTER OF AUGUSTINUS DE FIDE WHICH HAS TWENTY-SEVEN LINES TO THE PAGE, all the others having twenty-six. AN EXTREMELY FINE AND VERY LARGE COPY.

SUPERB COPY WITH FORE-EDGE PAINTING

296. FORE-EDGE PAINTINGS BY EDWARDS OF HALIFAX. BURNS (ROBERT). The Works of Robert Burns; with an Account of his Life, and a Criticism of his Writings, etc. Portrait after Nasmyth, engraved by Neagle, vignettes on titles. 4 vols. 8vo, full contemporary vellum, sides with wide borders worked in gold against black background; backs with pink lettering pieces, and filled in with rich floral design; inside floreated borders, gilt edges, WITH FORE-EDGE PAINTINGS, in his characteristic style, BY EDWARDS OF HALIFAX. Each volume enclosed in its original green leather case.

London: T. Cadell, 1801

A SUPERLATIVE COPY, WITH A FORE-EDGE PAINTING ON EACH VOLUME AND THE GENUINE WORK OF THE CELEBRATED HALIFAX BOOKBINDER AND PAINTER. He was the inventor of the art of fore-edge painting, fine examples of this branch of his work exemplified in the fore-edge paintings of the above volumes, below described, as well as the originator of gilt decoration on vellum covers. CONTEMPORARY EXAMPLES LIKE THE ABOVE ARE OF THE UTMOST RARITY, even single volumes being seldom offered. He has his imitators, however, but his vellum bindings cannot be imitated or the brilliancy of his painting be approached.

ON THE FORE-EDGE OF EACH OF THE ABOVE VOLUMES, EDWARDS HAS PAINTED A LITTLE MASTERPIECE, viz., Vol. I. Denham Palace, Buckinghamshire, a stately building standing in a wooded field, with three figures in the fore-ground; Vol. II. Hampton House, in Middlesex, the seat of Mrs. Garrick, a large mansion, a summer-house, and grounds with trees; Vol. III. Riponden Village between Manchester and Halifax, the castle and several smaller buildings, a bridge over the river, roads, and the hilly background; Vol. IV. Felbrig in Norfolk, seat of the Rt. Hon. Wm. Wyndham, a large mansion in a wooded field, a smaller house, two figures and a post-chaise in the fore-ground.

This set was undoubtedly executed by Edwards for one of his Patrons living near him in Halifax, as all the scenes are very near that town.

THOMAS GRAY
ILLUMINATED TITLE BY SANGORSKI
[No. 320]

GRANT'S ACCOUNT OF THE VICKSBURG CAMPAIGN

318. GRANT (ULYSSES S.—President of the United States). ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT, AS DICTATED BY GENERAL GRANT, AND WITH SEVERAL AUTOGRAPH ADDITIONS BY HIM, of his account of,—“The Vicksburg Campaign.” Manuscript of about 18,000 words, written in ink on one side of 246 leaves of foolscap paper, with three lines on page 36 in GRANT'S AUTOGRAPH, and words inserted or corrected throughout probably in his autograph. Engraved portrait. Neat pen-and-ink title-page inserted. Bound in small folio volume, full dark blue crushed levant morocco, janseneste, inside gilt dentelle borders, gilt top, uncut, BY MACDONALD.

A MANUSCRIPT OF THE GREATEST INTEREST, as Grant's only contributions to literature consist of this and two or three other articles written for the “Century Magazine,” and his “Personal Memoirs,” in which the above article was later incorporated. Although written at Grant's dictation by an amanuensis, the manuscript bears corrections in the handwriting of Grant, notably the sentence on page 36, which give it the associative interest and importance of an autograph manuscript, and it would be difficult to conceive of a topic on which he could write with greater authority and conviction than the Vicksburg Campaign, generally regarded as his most brilliant military achievement.

No Grant manuscript of the extent and interest has ever been offered at public sale before.

319. GRANVILLE (MARY). Autobiography and Correspondence of Mary Granville, Mrs. Delaney: With Interesting Reminiscences of King George the Third and Queen Charlotte. Edited by the Right Honourable Lady Llanover. First Series, 3 vols. FINE COLLECTED SET. ALL FIRST EDITIONS, except one as mentioned below UNIFORMLY BOUND.

A CHOICE SET OF THE ORIGINAL EDITIONS OF THE WORKS OF THIS FAMOUS NOVELIST, like the present, is seldom met with, as most all his earlier novels were published in the old two and three volume form, in just large enough editions to supply the libraries, whose copies usually became so soiled and torn and mutilated that few have survived; comprising,—

Under the Greenwood Tree. 2 vols. 1872;
A Pair of Blue Eyes. 3 vols. 1873;
Far from the Madding Crowd. Illustrated. 2 vols. 1874. Second Edition;
The Hand of Ethelberta. Illustrated. 2 vols. 1876;

329. HARDY (THOMAS). Complete Works of Thomas Hardy. Portraits and other illustrations. 37 vols., 8vo, original blue cloth, richly gilt backs, uncut.

London: Macmillan & Co., 1919-1920

THE MELLSTOCK EDITION, limited to 500 copies, with Mr. Hardy's autograph signature in Volume I.

As the issue was so very small, and owing to the American holders of Hardy's copyrights recently having prevented the further importation of this edition, it has become very scarce and difficult to secure in this country: comprising,—

Tess of the d'Urbervilles, 2 vols.; Far from the Madding Crowd, 2 vols.; Jude the Obscure, 2 vols.; The Return of the Native, 2 vols.; The Mayor of Casterbridge, 2 vols.; The Woodlanders, 2 vols.; Under the Greenwood Tree; Life's Little Ironies; Wessex Tales; A Pair of Blue Eyes, 2 vols.; The Trumpet Major, 2 vols.; Two on a Tower; The Well Beloved; A Group of Noble Dames; Desperate Remedies, 2 vols.; The Hand of Ethelberta, 2 vols.; Laodicean, 2 vols.; A Changed Man, 2 vols.; The Dynasts, 3 vols.; Wessex Poems; Time's Laughing Stocks; Satires of Circumstance; Moments of Vision.

AUTHOR'S ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT

331. HARRIS (JOEL CHANDLER). ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT, entitled, "Nights with Uncle Remus;" with chapters entitled,—"African Jack;" "Why the Alligator's Back is Rough;" "Brother Fox Says Grace;" "A Ghost Story;" "Brother Rabbit and his Famous Foot;" "In Some Lady's Garden;" "Brother Possum Gets in Trouble;" "Why the Guinea Fowls are Speckled;" "Brother Rabbit's Love Charm;" "Brother Rabbit Submits to a Test." Closely written on 67 leaves, on one side only, royal 4to, each leaf carefully guarded on a hinge. Bound in one vol. 4to, full blue levant morocco, gilt sides and back. Enclosed in a half-blue morocco slip-case.

Accompanying the above Manuscript, is a PRESENTATION COPY of the work, with the following Signed Autograph Inscription,—"This book, naturally, followed Uncle Remus: His Songs and his Sayings. The Introduction is a gem. It should be read with the eyes half closed in order to get the full effect of the vast learning it contains. The reader will naturally think it represents some knowledge of comparative folk-lore on the part of the author. He is willing to make affidavit that he knows no more on the subject than a blind horse knows about Sunday.—Joel Chandler Harris, Atlanta, Ga., May, 1900."

MANUSCRIPT OF THE GREATEST AMERICAN INTEREST. Harris's "Uncle Remus," in spite of what the joking author says of his want of folk-lore knowledge, has taken its place as this country's foremost contribution to folk-lore.

Mr. Harris, in presenting this Manuscript, stated that it was all that remained of the collection as sent to his publisher, the balance never having been returned to him, as it was destroyed at the printer's. We have here the major portion of the work, each story being really complete in itself.

To share trust, enterprise & ease,
Graceful manners flowing round
From the court's enchanted ground,
Loving as a rose,
None too rich, & none too poor

These meadows sweet child of air
Fit to see that golden sun,
There may no worse lot befall
Than a long life, full of
Follies, with, of life's true joy
And a smile to bid it true
Fate's laugh, can see,
And all earth's best left to me,
While the poor look up, & then
By selfish motives
And when all thy days are true
And sadness views the sky in
Mayst thou greet thy mother's eyes,
And endless May in heaven

AUTHOR'S ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT

357. HUNT (LEIGH). THE COMPLETE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT SIGNED OF HIS "LINES ON THE BIRTH OF THE PRINCESS ALICE." 3 sheets. Inlaid.

[See Reproduction of Autograph]

This Princess, born April 25, 1843, was the third child of Queen Victoria. She married in 1862, H. R. H. Louis IV, Grand-Duke of Hesse; died in December, 1878.

Hunt's poem, which covers three long sheets of paper, and is inlaid with portrait and a beautiful transcript into a full levant volume, is his most delightful piece of verse of welcome to a royal infant. It is especially so in its reference to Queen Victoria, whom the poet calls, Thy sweet, strong-hearted mother.

The present manuscript shows Hunt's genius at its best.

ILLUMINATIONS OF FRESCOES IN THE CATHEDRAL OF ST. VITUS

358. ILLUMINATED LEAVES ON VELLUM. Three Vellum Leaves, each  $12\frac{1}{4}$  by  $8\frac{3}{4}$  inches, from a Sixteenth Century Manuscript Life, in Latin, of Saint Wenceslaus of Bohemia, comprising,—TITLE-PAGE, with lettering, "Vita, et Martyrium Sancti Wenceslai Bohemice Regis, Iconibus ex Sacello eidem dicato in Ecclesia maiori arcis pragensis de sumtis, pictis et illuminatis, exornatum," in triangular space at top with gold ruled border at two lower sides, quotation from Psalms below, miniature of Saint Wenceslaus in full armor with shield and lance at left, and of a nun at right, each miniature with colored canopy above it, quotation and miniatures framed with bands of burnished gold; balance of page filled in with figures of mermaids, mer-men, grotesques, birds, foliate designs, etc., all painted in delicate colors touched with gold, on the white vellum ground; LEAF, numbered "Capvt. IIII," WITH MINIATURE, 9 by  $7\frac{3}{4}$  inches. Shows Saint Wenceslaus in shot gold robe and burnished gold halo, standing before an altar with missal, chalice and paten in his hands, attended by priests and acolytes in brightly colored robes, with reredos in dull gold showing the Crucifixion in center panel and Virgin in the end panel, above the altar, with background of neutral colored stone walls, columns and floor. With 11 lines of text; LEAF, "Capvt. V," WITH MINIATURE, 9 by  $7\frac{3}{4}$  inches. Sixteenth Century

These Beautifully Illuminated Leaves together with those listed in the six numbers following, are probably the ONLY COPIES EXTANT OF THE BEAUTIFUL FRESCOES ON THE UPPER WALLS OF THE CHAPEL OF ST. WENCESLAUS IN THE CATHEDRAL OF ST. VITUS, PRAGUE, BOHEMIA. The original paintings were executed in the time of Charles IV in the latter half of the 14th Century, and were perhaps done by Meister Oswald who decorated the lower portion of the same walls. Between 1540 and 1570 the restoration of the paintings was authorized, but it seems that they were too high on the walls for the artist designated to reach them, and were finally left untouched. In 1585 Matthias Hutsky of Pürglitz made a copy of the paintings for Duke Frederick of Tyrol, and it is VERY PROBABLE THAT THE PRESENT SERIES comprises THE COPY MADE BY HIM.

The miniatures show many of the crudities of the earlier period at which the originals were executed, notably in the free use of vivid greens, but the contrasts of the bright colors with the beautifully tinted grays and mauves of the walls is most artistically rendered, and the entire series of miniatures are distinctly pleasing in coloring and execution. The paintings are unfaded, the colors fresh and brilliant, the burnished gold, though slightly chipped in some places, for the most part is untarnished, and aside from some slight water-stains, mostly on margins, are in EXCELLENT STATE OF PRESERVATION.

372. [IRVING (WASHINGTON).] The Poetical Works of Thomas Campbell. Comprising Several Pieces not contained in any former edition. To which is prefixed a Revised and Improved Biographical Sketch of the Author, by a Gentleman of New York. 24mo, original sheep, part of back repaired. Enclosed in three-quarter green levant solander case, with buckram protecting wrapper. Philadelphia, 1815

The biographical sketch, in its revised form was first published in "The Analectic Magazine" for March 1815, written by Washington Irving.

From the J. C. Chamberlain collection, with his bookplate.

IRVING'S ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT OF "NEWSTEAD ABBEY"

373. IRVING (WASHINGTON). ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT of his work,—"Newstead Abbey." MANUSCRIPT OF APPROXIMATELY 30,000 OR MORE WORDS, written in ink on about 207 octavo pages, ENTIRELY IN IRVING'S HANDWRITING. Engraved portrait of Irving inserted as frontispiece. Pasted down onto blank leaves of scrap-book, royal 4to, half calf, binding worn. Enclosed in full green morocco solander case, gilt lettered on side and back.

Circa 1834

This and the manuscript immediately following, are WITHOUT DOUBT THE FINEST IRVING AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPTS THAT HAVE BEEN OFFERED AT PUBLIC SALE IN MANY YEARS, AND IT IS A QUESTION IF ANY MORE VALUABLE HAVE EVER BEEN SOLD BY AUCTION.

The manuscript lacks the first four pages, the loss of which is described in a note in the volume, written and signed by Mr. F. Chandler, son of the original owner, as follows,—"This manuscript was loaned to a lady friend, who returned it with the first four leaves missing—saying 'the baby got hold of it, and tore them up'." ASIDE FROM THIS THE MANUSCRIPT IS COMPLETE, AND IT IS THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT FROM WHICH THE FIRST EDITION OF THE WORK, AS PUBLISHED IN "CRAYON MISCELLANY," Vol. II, New York, 1835, WAS PRINTED, the typesetters' names appearing on the margins in several places; the page numbers of the printed text have been also added in a number of instances. As this is the original manuscript used in the printing, the text of the manuscript and the printed work read practically the same, with possibly some slight variations made during the proofreading.

The manuscript is written throughout in Irving's small but fairly legible hand, on octavo sheets, an ordinary page containing 20-22 lines averaging about 145 words to the page, with numerous cancellations and alterations, interlineations and additions. Many sheets have been cut and pasted, a single page consisting often of three or four pieces of paper, and many are extended to royal octavo length, with a few sheets written on both sides and hinged to the larger leaves.

The following letter received by the Association from the present private owner regarding the two manuscripts and their original owner may prove interesting,—

"These manuscripts were given to Adoniram Chandler by Irving; were, at his death, left to his son Franklin Chandler and came through Franklin Chandler to the present generation of the family.

"Adoniram Chandler was born in Maine (then a province of Massachusetts), the son of Thomas and Abigail Chandler in 1791. He came to New York, a printer, shortly before the war of 1812, in which he served as Warrant Officer on the U. S. S. Lady of the Lake, under Commodore Chauncy in the campaign on Lake Ontario.

"After the war he returned to New York and the printing and stereotyping business. In 1833, after years of service in the 85th New York State Infantry, he became Colonel. In 1836 the Senate and Assembly in joint resolutions elected him Commissary General of the State. He had already served several terms in the Assembly.

"Contemporary accounts credit him with being one of the founders of the American Institute, 1828, and, for years, a Trustee; President of the New York Typographical Society, and also of the Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen.

"Correspondence with Noah Webster show him to have been Webster's chief authority for mechanical and scientific terms as embodied in his Dictionary, and the printer of Webster's Spelling Book.

"He died in 1854 leaving a son, Franklin Chandler, who later, served as President of the Mechanics Bank in Wall Street for many years and died in 1903.

"These facts may lend additional interest to the manuscripts."

Second Session, Wednesday Afternoon, January 31st

IRVING'S COMPLETE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT OF HIS LEGENDS
OF THE CONQUEST OF SPAIN

374. IRVING (WASHINGTON). ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT of his work,—"Legends of the Conquest of Spain." MANUSCRIPT OF APPROXIMATELY 55,000 WORDS, written in ink on 396 octavo pages, ENTIRELY IN IRVING'S HANDWRITING. Pasted down onto blank leaves of scrapbook, royal 4to, half leather, back missing, binding worn. Enclosed in full green morocco solander case, gilt lettered on side and back. Alhambra, Spain, 1829

[See Reproduction of Autograph]

ABSOLUTELY COMPLETE MANUSCRIPT, WITH PREFACE, NOTES AND FOOTNOTES, AS PREPARED BY IRVING FOR THE PRESS. THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT USED FOR THE PRINTING OF THE FIRST EDITION OF THIS WORK, AS ISSUED IN THE "CRAYON MISCELLANYS," Vol. III, New York, 1835, with the typesetters' names written in margins, and the page numbers of the FIRST EDITION indicated at intervals through the manuscript. The manuscript has been carefully compared with the printed text, and agrees with it, with perhaps some slight variations which were made during the proofreading.

The manuscript is written throughout in Irving's small but fairly legible hand, on octavo sheets, an ordinary page containing 20-22 lines averaging about 145 words to the page, with numerous cancellations and alterations, interlineations and additions. Many sheets have been cut and pasted, a single page often consisting of three or four pieces of paper, and some are extended thus to royal 8vo length.

It is interesting to note that this work was written by Irving in Spain, during the summer of 1829 while he was living in the old Moorish palace of the Alhambra, as the "Legend of the Subjugation of Spain," is dated at the end,—"Alhambra, June 10th, 1829."

A manuscript note written by the owner of the volume, which is inserted at beginning, regarding the publication of the work and its contents, reads,—"In an edition of these papers, arranged and edited by Mr. Pierre M. Irving, and published by G. P. Putnam, Hurd & Houghton in 1866, found in the Astor Library, the following remarks appear in the preface. 'A limited edition of the Legends of the Conquest of Spain, was published in 1835, and has long ago been exhausted. These Legends, consisting of the Legend of Don Roderick, the Legend of the Subjugation of Spain, the Legend of Count Julian and his family, formed No. 3 of the Crayon Miscellany. They have been so long out of print, that, to the present generation of readers, they will probably be no less novel than the Chronicles which follow them, and which receive publicity for the first time.'"

This Manuscript, together with the one immediately preceding it, were given by Irving himself to this friend, Mr. Adoniram Chandler, a printer and prominent man in New York at that time, and have remained in the possession of Mr. Chandler and his descendants until the present time. (See the letter quoted in preceding item.)

Enclosed in full dark green morocco hinged case, with white watered silk padded lining and fitted velvet frame.

385. KELLO (H.). The Confession of Faith. Together with the Lesser Catechisme. A beautifully written MANUSCRIPT on paper. 12mo, original calf.
Edinburgh: Written by H. K. the 6th of August, 1669

This interesting little manuscript in two parts, the FIRST, containing two preliminary leaves and 274 numbered pages, the SECOND, 64 numbered leaves entitled "The Shorter Catechism," is in the handwriting of a descendent of Hester Inglis, celebrated calligraphist, who married a Kello.

386. KEMPIS (THOMAS À.). De l'Imitation de Jesus-Christ. Traduction Nouvelle [par l'Abbé de Choisy]. 6 engraved plates, engraved vignette in two states, one being proof before letters. 12mo, full sapphire blue crushed French levant morocco, janseneste; doublores of crimson crushed French levant with deep gilt dentelle borders having tiny ovals at corners enclosing small cross in gilt, within gilt fillet and dotted line borders; crimson watered silk fly-leaves; gilt over marbled edges, BY LORTIC, signed and with binder's label.
Paris: A. Dezallier 1692

FIRST EDITION WITH THE ORIGINAL PLATE "Audi, Filia," FACING LIVRE II, WHICH WAS LATER SUPPRESSED, AND WITH A DUPLICATE OF THE VIGNETTE, PROOF BEFORE LETTERS, INSERTED. FINE COPY OF THIS EXTREMELY RARE WORK.

This edition of L'Imitation is specially desired because of the engravings. The vignette shows a view of the chapel at Versailles; the plate "Audi, Filia," is supposed to represent Madame de Maintenon, and the reference to her here made by the Abbé de Choisy was so offensive to the Court that he was obliged to suppress the plate and substitute one of a different design; the plate following title shows Louis XIV in a chariot drawn by lions, being crowned with laurel by the angelic driver; the other plates are of ordinary religious subjects.

UNIQUE SET OF THE WORKS OF RUDYARD KIPLING.

As is well known, Kipling is withal a hermit in his characteristics. Few people can claim him as a friend, and autograph collectors have found him the hardest of living celebrities to succumb to their wiles. In 1903, the former owner of this set prevailed upon Mr. Kipling to inscribe the books. He did this in the 20 volumes then issued, SIGNING HIS NAME IN FULL ON THE TITLE-PAGES. In addition, he also penned the following verses in Vol. I,—

*"The rose that glimmers by the garden walk
Hath cheered awhile our wine-cup and our talk!
Then why the deuce need you castigate[?]
Her petals, and cut slivers from her stalk?"*

*"Soapsuds or bones or cow dung, was it bred
Her imbricated bud's insistent head?
Seek not, O stranger, to participate—
Suffice it she was born and she is read!"*

And also on the fly-leaf of Vol. 19 he has written:

*"Jubal sang of the wrath of God
And the curse of thistle and thorn—
But Tubal got him a pointed rod
And scrabbled the earth for corn.*

*"Wherefor old as that first turned mould—
Young as the sprouting grain—
Yearly green is the strip between Jubal and Tubal Cain.*

"Rudyard Kipling."

And on the fly-leaf of Vol. 20 he has written:—

*"The cure for this ill is not to sit still—
Or frowst with a book by the fire:
But to take a large hoe
And a shovel also,
And dig till you gently perspire.*

*"And then you will find
That the Sun and the Wind
And the Djinn of the Garden, too,
Will lift the hump—
Cameleon's hump—
The humps that is black and blue.*

"Rudyard Kipling."

No. 1, undated, to Mr. McClure, his publisher, reads in part,—“Your demands is scand'lus, an' your language awful. I've been out of town now or I would have written ere this. I'll see what I can do about that yarn you want . . . send the billowy Britisher to me when he comes and come thou also thyself.”

No. 2, to Mr. Ellsworth of “The Century,” mentions Strang's portrait of himself, and wants to know when his Captains Courageous is coming out, the dedication to Dr. James Conland of Brattleboro, Vt., tells of doing some verse, two tales he is working on, etc.

No. 3, to Mr. Gilder of “The Century,” October 17, 1899, mentions “a little bit of a war” (in South Africa), advises him to read Fitzpatrick's “The Transvaal from Within,” etc.

No. 6, to Mr. McClure, about the bicycle, “the pride of my heart and the envy of the beholder. You should see me gallivanting through Brighton. . . . The wife is immensely pleased with hers,” etc.

No. 7, to Mr. McClure, “I can't tell how we shall rejoice in the chainless. I've tried one already and the relief from the slash and lash of the chain was delightful.”

No. 8, to Mr. Gilder, dated from “11 E. 32d Street, New York,” elucidates the words “patteran and Delhi Ko dour.” “I shall have a shy at the same in verse of a different metre at the head of the poem I think. Anyway, no prose if I can avoid it.”

THIS HANDSOMELY PRINTED EDITION OF THE WORKS OF MR. KIPLING, WITH THE ADDITIONS OF HIS AUTOGRAPHS AND VERSE AS NOTED ABOVE, IS UNQUESTIONABLY THE CHOICEST SET THAT ANY KIPLING ENTHUSIAST COULD DESIRE.

Together two volumes, each enclosed in a specially made cloth jacket within a half red morocco slip-case. 1888

396. LA PEYRERE (ISAAC DE). Præadamite sive Exercitatio super Versibus duodecimo, decimotertio, & decimoquarto, capitis quinti Epistolæ D. Pauli ad Romanos. Quibus inducuntur primi homines ante Adamum conditi. 4to, original calf, gilt back, cracked at hinges.

[Amsterdam: L. & D. Elzevir.] Anno Salutis, 1655

THE FIRST EDITION of this singular and much sought book. The volume was condemned to be burned as soon as it appeared, and the scandal gives reason for its being unrecorded in any catalogue of its time, even in the large Elzevir Catalogue of 1674.

Brunet gives its printing as Paris, Pieters gives Leyden, but Willems, the greatest authority on the Elzevirs, thought it was printed at Amsterdam.

397. LA MOIGNON (CHRÉTIEN FRANÇOIS DE, the second). Catalogue des Livres Imprimés de Manuscrits de la Bibliothèque de M. de La Moignon, Président du Parlement. Avec une Table Alphabétique des Auteurs. Folio, full contemporary citron morocco, triple gilt fillets on sides, back panelled in gilt floral and acorn designs, inside gilt floral borders, gilt edges, several manuscript annotations in margins. Paris, 1770

ONLY FIFTEEN COPIES PRINTED. VERY RARE. Guigard, in his Nouvel Armorial du Bibliophile, says of this Catalogue,—“The Edition, remarkable for its typographic execution, consisted of only fifteen examples in all, printed upon papier de coton manufactured for this special purpose at Angoulême.”

The Library here catalogued was begun by Guillaume de La Moignon, first President of the Parlement of Paris, who died in 1677, was increased by his son, Chrétien-François de La Moignon, marquis de Basville, and other descendants, and on coming into the possession of Chrétien-François the second, was further augmented by that of his father-in-law, Nicolas-René Berryer. When the two parts were assembled, M. de La Moignon ordered the compilation of the above Catalogue, which was made under the direction of M. L.-F. de La Tour. It is possible that the present volume may have been M. de La Moignon's own copy, as it bears the stamp of a crowned “L” on page 3, which is evidently not that of the later owner, Lord Leigh.

With bookplate of Baron Leigh.

398. LAUD'S PRAYER-BOOK. The Booke of Common Prayer, and Administration of the Sacraments. And other parts of divine Service for the use of the Church of Scotland. 1637; The Psalter, or, Psalmes of David. . . . 1636. Black letter. Titles within ornamental borders, woodcut initials. 2 vols. in one, full dark blue morocco, extra sides with broad gilt border of thistles and other floral patterns and ecclesiastical symbols at corners; gilt back; inside gilt dentelle borders; gilt edges, BY CLARKE AND BEDFORD.

Edinburgh: Printed by Robert Young . . . 1637, 1636

EXTREMELY RARE. FINE COPY OF LAUD'S PRAYER BOOK, THE FIRST SCOTTISH BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER. With correct catchword on leaf hh3, but with the catchword “Certaine,” at end of Psalms. The two suppressed leaves of “Godlie Prayers,” have been added in facsimile.

With bookplate of John Naylor Leighton.

IMPORTANT LETTERS BY ABRAHAM LINCOLN

407. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM—President of the United States). Autograph Letters Signed, 2pp. 4to, Springfield, June 27, 1853. To Hon. Thomas J. Turner, Freeport, Illinois. Addressed in Lincoln's autograph on back, and with seal and postmarks. Slight break in folds skillfully repaired.
UNUSUALLY LONG AND INTERESTING LETTER WRITTEN BY LINCOLN AT THE TIME WHEN HE WAS BECOMING KNOWN THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY BECAUSE OF HIS OPPOSITION TO THE EXTENSION OF SLAVERY IN THE NEWLY ADMITTED TERRITORIES, AND CONTAINING OVER 250 WORDS IN HIS AUTOGRAPH. Lincoln was at this time practicing law in Springfield, and this letter, and the two following items, relate to a Case which he was representing. The letter begins,—
"Your letter of the 20th reached me day-before-yesterday—I had, the day before, written to Adams [his client] to be on hand with his witnesses—but, at the request of Judge Logan [Stephen T. Logan, Lincoln's former law partner], who is Kemper's attorney, I put in a Postscript, saying to Adams, if he was agreed, the cause should be continued over the summer term. On subsequent reflection, I rather wish Adams may not agree—I have the case fresh in my mind, and therefore wish to keep it going till it is finished. . . . [Gives an outline of the proceedings to date, his plans in regard to future moves, and closes with,—] I should be glad to see you & shake you by the hand; but as there is no contested jury question, I scarcely think you need be at the trouble & expense of coming. All the law questions which can arise at the term, the Judge has already decided. Very truly yours, A. Lincoln."
408. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM—President of the United States.) Autograph Letter Signed, one page 4to, Springfield, August 15, 1853. To Hon. Thomas J. Turner, Freeport, Illinois. Slight breaks in folds skillfully repaired.
VERY FINE LONG LETTER, CONTAINING OVER 175 WORDS, AND MOST CHARACTERISTIC OF LINCOLN, SHOWING HIS FAIRNESS IN DEALING WITH THOSE OPPOSED TO HIM IN LEGAL CASES. The letter, which refers to the same case as the preceding item, and is addressed to the same person, is concerned with the sending of Commissioner's Certificates for the taking of depositions of witnesses by Mr. Turner. After stating the reasons for the form used, and directions for the method, he says, in regard to his former partner, Judge Logan, who is representing the opposite side in the case,—
"When I served notice on Logan I promised him that if he would name any attorney in the vicinity whom he would wish to be present at the taking of the depositions, I would request you to notify him of the time and place, but he is gone off to the 'World's Fair' without having named any. You will perceive Logan filed cross-interrogations; and which I hope may be as fully and fairly answered as our own. . . . Very truly your friend, A. Lincoln."

409. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM—President of the United States.). Autograph Letter Signed, 2pp. 4to, Springfield, Dec. 14, 1853. To Hon. Thomas J. Turner, Freeport, Illinois. With autograph address, seal and postmarks on back. Small tears skilfully repaired.

EXCEEDINGLY INTERESTING AND UNUSUALLY LONG LETTER ENTIRELY IN LINCOLN'S AUTOGRAPH, CONTAINING MORE THAN 350 WORDS. The letter relates to the same legal case as the two preceding items, and is addressed to the same person, and reads in part,—

"Your letter and the depositions both reached here yesterday; and, by agreement, Logan and I have opened the depositions and read them. By my agreement with Logan, made when I filed the Bill last summer, he has the option to continue the cause over this ensuing term, and he now elects to do so. This dispenses with your coming now, even if you should attend the trial when it does come off, which I think you need not do at any sacrifice. The depositions, in the main, are very good, yet there are two or three points, which I will mention, that I would prefer to have differently. . . . [Outlines several queries and asks for enlightenment on some doubtful passages, SHOWING HOW CAREFULLY HE STUDIED HIS CASES, and continues,—] I have the right, at the term, of amending the Bill, without excluding the evidence already taken, and consequently I must be informed at once, whether Adams was with Bradshaw when he took the Deed from Denny. . . . [Adds that this Denny and another person interested are now dead, and closes with,—] I now wish we had proved the fact [of their death] as an excuse for not making them witnesses. Yours truly, A. Lincoln."

410. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM—President of the United States). Letter Signed, 2pp. 4to, Executive Mansion, Washington, Dec. 2, 1863. To Messrs. George Opdyke, Jos. Sutherland, Benj. F. Manierre, Prosper M. Wetmore and Spencer Kirby, Committee; With beautiful pen and ink hand-engrossed transcript of the Letter; also Autograph Letter Signed by George Opdyke, Mayor of New York and one of the Committee to whom Lincoln's Letter was addressed, 1p. 4to, New York, Dec. 8, 1863, transmitting this letter to the Rev. John Milton Holmes, to be given to the ladies in charge of a Fair in Jersey City for the Relief of Soldiers. With portraits of Lincoln, and hand illuminated title-page inserted. Bound in 4to volume, full crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt lettered title on front cover and back strip, inside gilt dentelle borders, gilt top, BY MACDONALD. Enclosed in red cloth slip-case.

ONE OF LINCOLN'S FINEST LETTERS, AND CONTAINING A REMARKABLE TRIBUTE TO THE UNION SOLDIERS AND SAILORS. In the handwriting of Mr. Nicholay, Lincoln's Secretary but signed in Lincoln's autograph,—"Your Obedt. Servt. A. Lincoln."

"Yours of the 28th ult. inviting me to be present at a meeting to be held at the Cooper Institute on the 3d inst. to promote the raising of volunteers is received. Nothing would be more grateful to my feelings than to contribute if I could by my presence, or otherwise to that eminently patriotic object. Nevertheless, the now early meeting of Congress, together with a temporary illness, render my attendance impossible."

"You purpose also to celebrate our Western victories. Freed from apprehension of wounding the just sensibilities of brave soldiers fighting elsewhere, it would be exceedingly agreeable to me to join in a suitable acknowledgement to those of the Great West, with whom I was born and have passed my life. And it is exceedingly gratifying that a portion lately of the Army of the Potomac, but now serving with the great Army of the West, have borne so conspicuous a part in the late brilliant triumphs in Georgia."

"Honor to the Soldier and Sailor everywhere, who bravely bears his country's cause. Honor also to the citizen who cares for his brother in the field, and serves as he best can, the same cause. Honor to him—only less than to him who braves, for the common good, the storms of heaven and the storms of battle."

IMPORTANT HISTORICAL DOCUMENT ISSUED BY THE GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA, AND THE "KEY-NOTE" TO THE SECESSION MOVEMENT

414. [LINCOLN (ABRAHAM).] MOORE (A. B.—Governor of Alabama, 1860). Document Signed 1p. folio, Executive Department, Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 28th, 1860. Appointing Hon. J. W. Garrott a Commissioner to the Governor and Legislature of North Carolina, to consult on the steps to be taken by the Slaveholding States for their mutual protection against the recently elected Republican Government at Washington. Docketed on back,—"Commissions of Messrs Smith & Garrott from Ala. to N. C." With seal attached.

[See Reproduction of Autograph]

THE ORIGINAL DOCUMENT OF WHAT WAS PROBABLY THE FIRST OFFICIAL MOVE ON THE PART OF THE SOUTHERN STATES AFTER LINCOLN'S ELECTION TOWARDS CONCERTED ACTION FOR SECESSION. A MOST IMPORTANT DOCUMENT OF THE CIVIL WAR PERIOD.

Although Secession had been talked of, and indeed strongly advocated by many Southerners before the Nominations for President the preceding summer, it was not until after Lincoln's election that the idea began to take concrete form, and this document written just two weeks after the results of the election were known, shows that there was no time wasted before the initial steps were taken by the seceding states. The Document begins,—

"Whereas the election of Abraham Lincoln, a Black Republican, to the Presidency of the United States, by a purely sectional vote, and by a party whose leading and publicly avowed project is the destruction of the institution of slavery as it exists in the slaveholding states; And whereas the success of the said party and the power which it now has, and soon will acquire, greatly endanger the peace, interests, security and honor of the slaveholding states, and makes it necessary that prompt and effective measures should be adopted to avoid the evil which must result from a Republican Administration of the Federal Government; And as the interests and destiny of the slaveholding states are the same, they must naturally sympathise with each other, they, therefore, so far as may be practicable, should consult and advise together as to what is best to be done to protect their mutual interests and honor. . . ." To this end the Governor appoints the Hon. J. W. Garrott as Commissioner to confer with the Governor and Legislature of North Carolina and report the result in time for the meeting of the Alabama Convention in January following. The docketing on back would indicate that there was another person appointed at the same time, perhaps to visit some other state on the same mission.

Wittenberg and Nurnberg, 1531-1550*

A MOST VALUABLE AND INTERESTING SET IN THE FINEST POSSIBLE CONDITION. Luther's Tracts are exceedingly rare in any case, and when found are almost invariably so soiled, torn and worm-eaten as to be useless and undesirable. These copies are absolutely clean and perfect, each sermon being the First Issue.

These Sermons, or Tracts, were all published during the period of Luther's translation of the Bible into New High German and at the time his famous "Tischreden" (Table-Talk, 1538) was given to the world. It is impossible to view these memorials of the actual life and work of the great leader of the Reformation in Germany, without a feeling of respect akin to awe. The fierce invective and coarse vituperation for which his controversial writings have been censured, are palliated by the consideration that such was the almost universal custom of that age. If his opposition was violent, it was not malignant or unforgiving. When his bitterest enemy, Tetzl, was in misfortune and disgrace, forsaken by all his friends, Luther extended to him help and consolation.

Carlyle says of Luther: "No more valiant man ever lived in that Teutonic kindred whose character is valour;" and alluding to his fondness for music, he adds: "Death-defiance on the one hand, and such love of music on the other—between these two all great things had room."

VERY EARLY COPTIC MANUSCRIPT

426. MANUSCRIPT. COPTIC MANUSCRIPT. VIII-IX Century A.D. Eleven leaves, 4to, evidently at one time a portion of an old tome, covered with MS. in Coptic script written in black with chapter headings in red and large capitals. Excavated at Edfu, Upper Egypt. Height, 10½ inches; width, 7 inches.

In "The Light of Egypt," London, 1909, by de Rustafjaell, an interesting account is given of the finding in the ruins at Edfu, Upper Egypt, of some six manuscripts of, or relating to, the apocryphal books of the Bible, ad varium, and much not included in the published versions. The bulk of these went eventually into the British Museum, but eleven separate leaves he retained in his own collection, which are here catalogued, as well as one leaf of smaller dimensions.

VERY EARLY KUFIC MANUSCRIPT

427. MANUSCRIPT. LEAF OF HOLY KORAN. Kufic Manuscript, VII-VIII Century. Specimen of Kufic Calligraphy, written on parchment, in black with gold and red enamel decorations. Framed. Height, 9 inches; width, 11½ inches.

Kufic is specifically the alphabet of the Arabic used in the time of Mohammed, and in which the Koran was originally written. The development of the Kufic character began between the years A.D. 640 and A.D. 1245. It gradually fell into disuse for ordinary purposes, and was retained only for inscriptions, coins, etc.

The Palaeographic Society, "Facsimiles of Manuscripts and Inscriptions," Oriental Series, London, 1875-1883, shows a reproduction of a similar page of Kufic manuscript, so similar as to almost confirm the belief that it was written by the same scribe, but with the distinction that the diacritical points are, in that instance, small double dashes (") instead of well formed round dots, and it apparently has no square gold blocks dividing the paragraphs as in this instance. There is good reason to believe that this page of manuscript is one of the half dozen missing leaves from the famous Codex in the Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris, the oldest copy of the Koran extant.

MANUSCRIPT OF AN EARLY ROMANCE OF CHIVALRY

428. MANUSCRIPT. Albertano da Brescia [Causidici Brixiensis Albertani.] Liber Consolationis et Consilii, Liber de Amore et Dilectione Dei Aliarumque Rerum et de Forma Vitae, Itemque ejusdem Sermones. Item GESTA ALEXANDRI MAGNI. Item EPISTOLA PRESBYTERI JOHANNIS et PROPHECIAE SIBYLLAE. Manuscript of the early part of the Fourteenth Century written on 99 leaves, (10½ by 7⅞ inches). Ornamented with large initials, borders, and numerous very curious illuminations, comprising decorated capitals, (several historiated) small borders and other ornamentations, figures of birds, Cupid shooting, nondescripts with musical instruments, the fable of the crane and fox, etc. Folio, brown morocco, blind tooled, a few small worm-holes in six or seven leaves. Fourteenth Century

AN IMPORTANT AND FINE CHIVALRY MANUSCRIPT. It is very seldom that we find Manuscripts of such early Romances as "The Gesta Alexandri Magni" or "The Story of Prester John." The three works comprising this manuscript are the work of the celebrated Italian Writer and Jurist, Albertano of Brixiensis and they were written sometime between 1235-1246.

EARLY 14TH CENTURY MANUSCRIPT

429. MANUSCRIPT OF THE FOURTEENTH CENTURY. COMESTOR (PIERRE—Master of the School of Theology, Paris, 1164). Historica Scholastica, Comestor's celebrated work, written on 215 leaves (430 pages) double columns, 43 lines to the page. With a great many illuminated initial letters and rubricated throughout in blue and red. Written on very thin vellum. Folio, (8¼ by 12 inches), full dark red morocco, gilt lines on sides, gilt back, red edges. Early Fourteenth Century

A SPLENDID MANUSCRIPT OF AN IMPORTANT WORK. IN THE FINEST POSSIBLE CONDITION. Comestor's Scholastica Historia was written between 1164 and 1175 and was for many centuries esteemed the most scholarly body of positive Theology. He died in 1185. The Editio Princeps of the work is 1473 and we can find no record of as early a Manuscript copy as the present.

EARLY 14TH CENTURY MANUSCRIPT

430. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM. BONIFACE VIII, POPE. Liber Sextus Decretalium. Manuscript probably of English or Anglo-Norman workmanship, Fourteenth Century. Written in clear Gothic characters in black and red, in two columns, on 70 leaves of vellum, 11½ by 3¾ inches. Large initial letter at beginning of text in red and blue with elaborate pen-work decoration and filling in red, blue and green, extended into feathery border designs at top and inner margins; other capitals in red or blue with colored pen-work ornamentation extended into marginal decorations. Small folio, full modern pigskin, blind tooled, lettered on front cover and back. Fourteenth Century

VERY DESIRABLE EARLY MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, ALMOST CONTEMPORARY WITH POPE BONIFACE VIII. The use of the green inks in the decorations would indicate an English origin, as this color was very little used on the continent, and the style of the initial letters and decorations would seem to place the manuscript rather earlier than the date on the binding "Circa 1400." The lettered title on cover and notes in the volume call for Pope Clement V's Constitutiones as well as the Decretals, but the Constitutiones is not included in the Manuscript. The colophon, on last page, reads,—"Datu rome apud sanctum petru quinto nonas marcij. pontificatus bonifacij Anno quarto. Amen." This date (1298) probably refers to the date of the issuance of the Decretals, and not to the writing of the Manuscript.

FINE 15TH CENTURY MANUSCRIPT

431. MANUSCRIPT, FIFTEENTH CENTURY. BOUHC (HENRICUS). Liber Primus Distinctionum super Decretales. [Colophon.] Anno dni mo.cccc.xxv.die. mensis Decembris. Amberge. Manuscript written in cursive script in black with red initials and rubrication, averaging 37-38 long lines to the page, on 299 leaves of paper, 11 $\frac{7}{8}$  by 8 $\frac{1}{4}$  inches. With 2 large initial letters in red and green, extended into marginal decorations. Black ruled margins. Folio, original pigskin over oaken boards, with marks where chains, metal bosses and clasps were attached, metal of the clasps remaining on back cover; binding breaking at joints and somewhat wormed, also some small worm-holes through leaves. [Amberge, Bavaria, 1420]

FINE EARLY MANUSCRIPT OF THIS WORK, WHICH IS EXCEEDINGLY RARE EVEN IN ITS PRINTED STATE, HAIN RECORDING ONLY ONE PRINTING OF IT DURING THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY, THUS MAKING A MANUSCRIPT COPY DOUBLY VALUABLE. In excellent state of preservation throughout, aside from the tiny wormholes, and very carefully written. The binding is also worthy of note as a well-preserved specimen of early Fifteenth Century work.

Pasted onto fly-leaf is a hand-painted miniature on vellum, of a Franciscan friar, with the legend, "Per. Ermitte," on scroll at foot. The painting is excellently done, in true colors on white ground, the leaf measuring, 4 $\frac{1}{2}$  by 3 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches.

With book-label of Viscount Avonmere, Belle Isle, Roscrea, on inside of cover.

432. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM. ANDREAE (JOANNES). The Constitutiones of Pope Clement with the Commentary of Joannes Andreæ, promulgated at the Council of Vienne in 1311, etc. Manuscript on fine vellum. 198 folios. Small 4to, old French calf, with the crowned Ermine and Fleur-de-lis of LOUIS XII AND ANNE DE BRETAGNE. Saec. XIV

The first page of this very fine MS. is illuminated with three initial letters in gold, red and blue. Initials throughout are in red and blue. The Royal binding is Paris work of the first half of the 16th century and the crowned Fleur-de-lis and crowned Ermine of Louis XII of France and his Queen, Anne de Bretagne, are repeated on each cover. The Ermine (from the shield of Bretagne) was Queen Anne's emblem.

FINE FIFTEENTH CENTURY MANUSCRIPT

433. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM. ANTONINUS (ST.). DE CENSURIS. Manuscript on FINE VELLUM, written and signed by PINYAT, GALLICUS. Perfect, 169 folios. Small 4to, vellum. Sæc. XV. [1468]

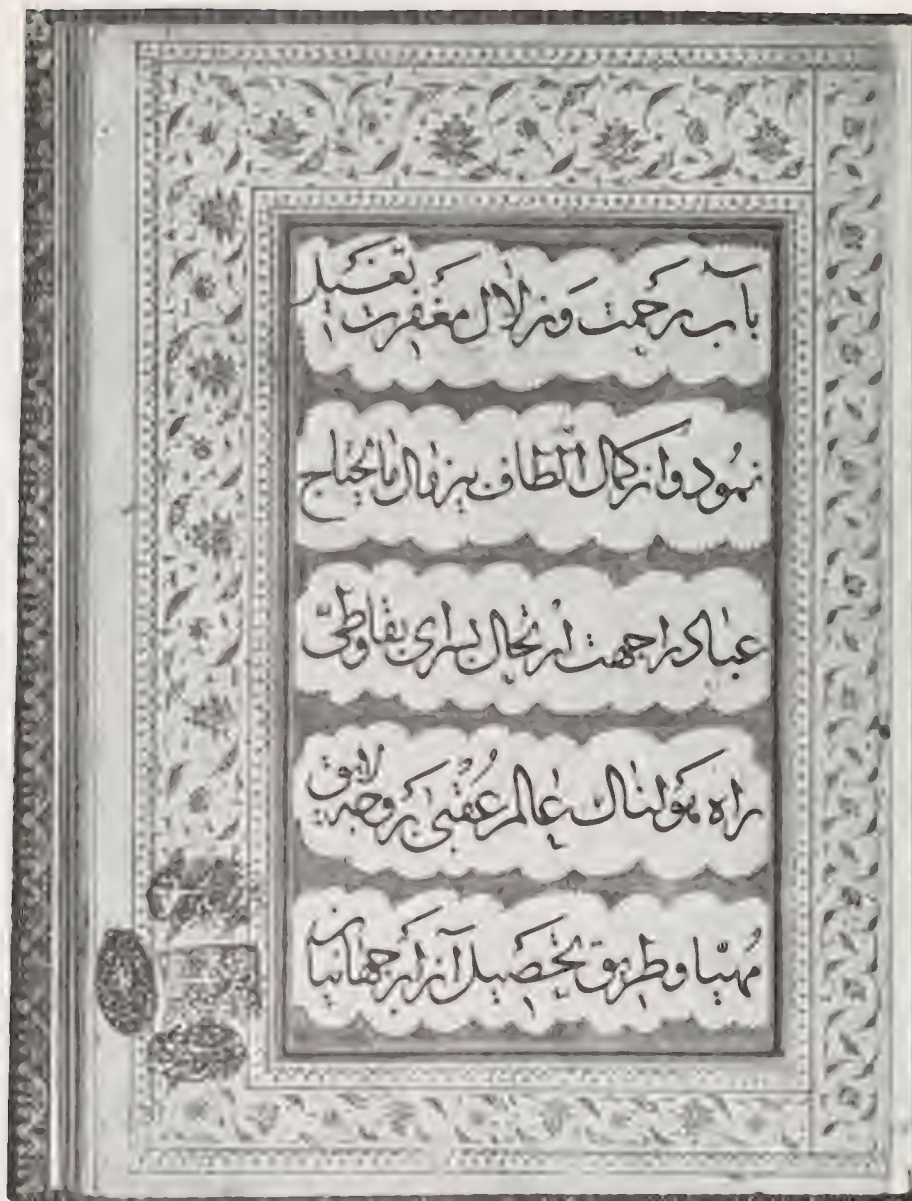

[See Illustration]

Beautifully written. The work of St. Antoninus is followed by two Papal bulls, one of Pius II, the date of which, though not given in the manuscript, was 17 November, 1461, and another of Paulus II, dated III Id. April, 1465.

The first page of text has a handsome initial E in blue and red upon a green and gold ground extended in the margin with pen-drawn ornaments and gold dots. The other initials throughout the book are finely drawn in blue and red with ornamental pen work extending up and down the margins. The Scribe has signed his name Pinyat, Gallicus (i. e., Pinyat the Frenchman) on the last leaf. At the end of the index, on the recto of the fourth leaf, is the inscription: "Notus sit omnibus presentium paginam insipientibus quod Reverendus pater frater Leonardus sacri ordinis montis oliveti nabbas dignissimus fratri Raphaeli de Mediolano ejusdem ordinis monacho professor concedit usum hujus voluminis ad suum beneplacitum et successoribus ejus proprietate remanet Monasterio de villa nova Laudensis diocesi cujus rei fidem prefatus pater abbas hanc signaturam scribi jussit die xxij. mensis Septembris 1471." distinguished abbot of the Sacred Order of Mount Olivet, granted the use of this book to brother Raphael of Milan, a professed monk of the same order, for his good pleasure, and for his successors, to remain in the possession of the Monastery of Villa Nova in the diocese of Lodi, in confirmation of which the before-mentioned father abbot commanded this inscription to be written on the 22nd day of the month of September 1471"). This inscription enables the date of the manuscript to be settled within a year or two, since it must be after April, 1465, a date found in the book, and before September, 1471. On the last written leaf of the volume is the inscription, twice over: "Liber iste est fratrum Sanctorum Nicolai et angeli de vilanova ordinis montis Oliveti et diocesis Laudensis."

434. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM. AMBROSIUS (St.). Hexameron. [The Six Days of the Creation.] In red and brown ink, signed BY GUILLERMUM DE CRUCE. 104 leaves. PERFECT. Small 4to, vellum, gilt line border on sides, gilt panelled back, red edges. Sæc. XV, 1468

At the end of the text is the inscription: "Iste liber est domus Montelli ordinis cartusie, dyocesis Tarvisine. Scriptus per me fratrem Guillelmum de Cruce professum ejusdem domus 1468." The Carthusian monastery of Montelli in the diocese of Treviso was founded in 1353. On the last leaf are added a story of St. Hugh of Grenoble headed, "De vero judicio judicando," and another, "Nota pulcrum exemplum de quodam pagando" from the "Thesaurus Pauperum," and lastly the interpretation of the text in Matthew, XXVI (verse 52): "All they that take the sword shall perish with the sword," by Alanus of Lille.

435. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM. BREVIARY, with Calendar. Illuminated Manuscript probably of the Flemish school, Fifteenth Century. Written in semi-Gothic characters in red and black on 269 leaves of fine vellum, 5 7/8 by 4 1/8 inches. Large initial letters illuminated in gold and colors, blue predominating, with tiny flowers and leaves in centers, hundreds of other initials in colored inks in elaborate designs, many touched with gold, and extending into lateral borders, other capitals alternately in red or blue; line-ends in green, red or blue; folio numbering in green. Small 8vo, full contemporary stamped calf with the name "Robiers Plovrins," in stamp; binding slightly cracked at joints and worn at edges of back, folio i cut out. Enclosed in brown straight-grain morocco solander case. Fifteenth Century

VERY CHARMING FIFTEENTH CENTURY MANUSCRIPT, beautifully written on exceptionally fine and perfect skins. The illuminated initials and the fine pen-work and the colors in the other initial letters and border decorations are also worthy of special mention. With old signature on fly-leaf, and stamp of a double "C" coronetted, on first leaf of Calendar. The leaf which has been cut out (folio i) probably contained a miniature painting to face beginning of text.

RARE PERSIAN HISTORICAL MANUSCRIPT

436. MANUSCRIPT, PERSIAN. Original Manuscript, in Persian, written by order of Sultoun Mohammed Hussein, Shah of Persia, 1118 A.H. (circa 1730 A.D.). Written in black and gold on 13 (should be 14) leaves of oriental glazed paper, 9 by 6 1/4 inches. First page surrounded by elaborate floral border in gold with broad irregular gold bands between the lines of writing, other pages with full ruled margins in gold and colors with narrow gold rulings between the lines. With official seals of the Shah, of the Chief Justice of the Persian Empire and of two lower officials stamped on each leaf. 8vo, each leaf tipped to stub with blank sheet between, and bound in full red crushed levant morocco, gilt, gilt edges, gold clasp. In cloth slip-case. Persia, circa 1730

VERY UNUSUAL MANUSCRIPT, OF GREAT HISTORICAL INTEREST, WRITTEN BY ORDER OF SULTOUN MOHAMMED HUSSEIN, SHAH OF PERSIA, LAST OF THE SAFY FAMILY. According to an English description of the Manuscript, which is included in the volume, this Manuscript, lacking only the first page which was lost, was to accompany a book containing the religious rites and ceremonies of the Mohammedan religion which the Shah had placed in a public building in Ispahan as a Memorial to himself. The Manuscript contains a notice regarding the preservation of this book, and states that by the Shah's order, Mohammed Barkeh Minshee (?) wrote the Manuscript in Praise of God, invoking the Prophets and commemorating the King, in the year 1118 of the Hegira.

In addition to the Persian Manuscript, the volume contains two additional leaves of smaller size with descriptive account in Arabic (?), the English description, and an Autograph Letter Signed by Jafer Ali, 3pp. 12mo, February 4th, 1803, to Samuel Young, Esq. presenting the Manuscript to Mr. Young and giving some details concerning it.

437. MANUSCRIPTS. PRAYER-BOOKS IN FRENCH. Heures Tres Devotes Contenant Plusieurs belles Oraisons . . . et quelques Hymnes pour le tems du Carême; [AND] Exercice du Chrétien. Manuscripts of the Seventeenth Century, written on paper of uniform size, 4¼ by 2⅝ inches. First volume written in roman and small italic letters on 98 pages, with title-page in red and black with design of the Christian symbol "IHS" between floral sprays, scribe's name, "F. Bernardvs fecit," in gilt with gilt fleurons at corners on verso of title, gilt head-pieces; second volume written in larger italic letters on 47 pages, with decorative head-piece in gilt and large initial letter in red with gilt floriate design on first page. Both volumes written in red and black, with initial letters in colored inks with fine pen-work decorations, some with gilt, and with black ruled margins throughout. With engraved portrait of "M. le Cardinal de Buvillon" (Cardinal Emmanuel Théodore de la Tour d'Auvergne de Bouillon, 1644-1715?) inserted in second volume as frontispiece. 2 vols. 24mo, FULL CONTEMPORARY RED MOROCCO, sides with gilt fillet borders and frames with gilt fleurons at corners, first with double frame, second with single frame, backs with gilt fleurons in panel, inside borders and rims gilt tooled with the leaf and lily design, gilt edges, in the style and possibly BY BOYET. Enclosed in modern oblong 12mo red crushed levant morocco chamois-lined compartment case with silver clasps, gilt edges.

A. Lyon: F. Bernardus, Seventeenth Century

VERY CHARMING LITTLE MANUSCRIPT VOLUMES, EXECUTED IN THE MANNER OF NICOLAS JARRY, IN HANDSOME CONTEMPORARY BINDINGS. Both manuscripts are probably by the F. Bernardus, à Lyon, who signs the first volume. In both volumes there are erasures at the bottom of the last pages, perhaps of an old signature.

With bookplate of the Bibliothèque d'Ailly in each volume.

438. MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS. BEAUGUÉ (JAN DE). L'Histoire de la Guerre d'Ecosse. 12mo, old calf, red edges. A Paris: Vincent Sertenas, 1556
FIRST EDITION. Large copy, with autograph signature of Patrick Moray.
EXCESSIVELY RARE WITH SERTENAS IMPRINT (See Scott, No. 9.)
The book was issued with three varieties of imprint in the same year, viz.: A Paris, pour Estienje Groulleau; A Paris, pour Gilles Corrozet; A Paris, pour Vincent Sertenas. The Scott copy possessed the Groulleau imprint, and Scott rightly states that the book in each variety of imprint is of considerable rarity, but the copies issued by Sertenas are more uncommon than the others.

439. MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS. BEAUGUE [JAN DE]. L'Histoire de la Guerre d'Es-cosse. 8vo, old calf, blind tooling, gilt back.

A Paris: Gilles Corrozet, 1556

FIRST EDITION. LARGE AND FINE COPY. EXTREMELY RARE.

The same work as the preceding, but by a different printer, and of different set-up.

FINE MUSICAL MANUSCRIPT

471. MUSIC. KILIAN (LUCAS). A Musical Manuscript of Three Masses written and decorated with charming Original Drawings by Lucas Kilian, Signed, for a member of the famous family of Bruni. 4to, full brown morocco extra, BY TRAUTZ-BAUZONNET. Sæc. XVI

UNIQUE. This beautiful Manuscript consists of twenty-eight leaves. The three Masses are "In Minoribus Duplicibus," "In Solemnitatibus Beate Marie Virginis," "In Dominicis Diebus," and a part of a "Credo." The initial letters are beautifully drawn and several other drawings of the most delicate execution are scattered throughout. An remarkable fact about this manuscript is the diversity of styles in the decorative drawings. The initials of the first Mass, made by a skilful combination of pen-strokes, are German. These cease after the eighth leaf, and the remaining initials are of Italian design. The beautifully drawn figure on the verso of the tenth leaf is a very charming drawing with certain alterations in the accessories of the engraving of "Fortuna" by Hans Sebald Beham of Nuremberg, dated 1541. On the recto of the nineteenth leaf is another superb drawing of the Almighty, standing on a globe. Above is the Holy Ghost in the form of a dove, and at the sides are cherubs and clouds. In the left hand bottom corner are the initials D. N. C., and in the right hand corner, L. K. After the eighth leaf the large initials are in the Italian Renaissance style, either decorated with floral ornament or with busts of female figures. There are very graceful borders at the foot of three pages, the last, which depict various animals, within interlaced foliage, being more in the German than Italian style. The writing of the music is German in appearance, and is further emphasized by the use of the letter H in the notes of the accompaniment. Twice, in the lower margins, occurs the unmistakable Italian COAT OF ARMS OF THE BRUNI family, "Azure, a bend vair, cotises or, between two estoiles of the last." The shield in the second example is somewhat German in shape, but the wreathing is Italian. These variations in style point to the MS., and the decoration of it, having been executed by a German in Italy. The initials D. N. C., L. K., on the drawing of the Almighty, provide us with the name of the Artist. They are in the position usually found on engravings, the artist's on the left, the engraver's on the right. They are the VERY UNCOMMON initials of Lucas Kilian, who was born at Augsburg in 1579. He was the eldest son of a goldsmith, and was instructed in painting by his stepfather, who sent him to Italy for improvement. He resided chiefly at Venice, where he designed the present beautiful manuscript, and engraved several plates, and, returning to Germany, died at Augsburg, in 1637. The stepfather, who was an artist and engraver, was Dominicus Custos, the D. N. C. of our drawing.

Additional importance attaches to this volume from its having been in the possession of the celebrated French composer and critic, HECTOR BERLIOZ. His autograph explanations on the notation and his signature are on the fly-leaf.

THE ONLY MANUSCRIPT KNOWN WRITTEN AND DECORATED BY LUCAS KILIAN.

It begins on the reverse of the front cover with a representation of 25 numerical Telegraph Flags, drawn and colored by hand. The first page contains an Autograph Letter Signed by the author, Henry Huff Pritchard, Captain of the Island Artillery, during Napoleon's captivity; following this are,—“Numerical Night Signals,” “Distinguishing Signals,” “Connecting Signal,” “Signal for Surgeon,” “Points of the Compass,” “Alphabet,” “Posts and Stations,” “Countries, etc.” List of persons on the Island with corresponding Code Numbers, Soldier Companies with the same; “Words and Sentences” with Codes; a series of special codes relating to Bonaparte himself, page 67 containing details of signals to be used if “Buonaparte is missing,” signed in the Autograph of Admiral Sir George Cockburn, and also by Captain Pritchard; Lists of His Majesty's and of the East India Company's ships; and the last two pages contain, “Additional Instructions to be kept secret and punctually obeyed,” with some concluding details on inside of back cover of “Alarms to the Garrison.”

AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURES BY NAPOLEON,—(1) Letter Signed “Bonaparte,” one page, folio, Nice, 1 Ventose l'an 2me Repque (Feb. 19, 1794). 481. NUREMBERG CHRONICLE. SCHEDEL (HARTMANN). Libri Cronicarum cum figuris et ymaginibus ab inicio mundi. With upwards of 2,000 fine and spirited large and small woodcuts, by Wolgemuth and Pleydenwurf, including numerous large views of Cities, Portraits, Maps, etc. Folio, full old calf, red edges. Nurembergae: Anthonius Koberger, 1493

A VERY FINE AND PERFECT COPY OF THE RARE ORIGINAL EDITION, with the "De Samarcia" and the original blank leaves, reserved for posterity to continue the history to the present time. These blank leaves have been filled in in an ancient hand. This copy is remarkably large, measuring  $17\frac{5}{8} \times 12\frac{1}{4}$  inches, being nearly an inch taller and three-quarters of an inch wider than the fine W. T. Wallace copy sold by us in 1920.

This work is one of the most remarkable books issued in the Fifteenth Century, because of the number and beauty of the woodcuts it contains. There are more than two thousand of them, so astonishingly well done that they have been reprinted and copied over and over again. The book was a great favorite with the learned classes of the sixteenth century, and was used as a picture book for the enjoyment of readers. On that account it is not often that tall and clean copies appear for sale. The woodcuts in this copy are most brilliant, the book never having been washed or pressed as was done with so many copies. The Portrait of Pope Joan is in pristine condition.

On the verso of p. leaf 290 is an account of the Portuguese voyage of discovery along the coast of Africa in 1483-4, under the direction of Diego Lam and Martin Beham of Nuremberg, which has been used as a basis for the unwarranted theory that the expedition reached America.

FINE LETTER BY POE

491. POE (EDGAR ALLAN). Autograph Letter Signed, one page, folio, Philadelphia, August 18, 1840. To Lucian Minor, Esqr., Charlottesville, Va. Addressed in Poe's autograph on back, with postmark.

[See Reproduction of Autograph]

REMARKABLY FINE AND LONG LETTER BY POE. IN SPLENDID PRESERVATION AND VERY DESIRABLE, LETTERS BY THIS FAMOUS AMERICAN AUTHOR BEING VERY SCARCE AND DIFFICULT TO PROCURE. The letter refers to the Prospectus of the "Penn Magazine" gotten out by Poe to procure contributions and subscriptions for the proposed venture, and reads in part,—

"I have the honor of sending you, herewith, a Prospectus of the Penn Magazine. In setting about the difficult and most ungracious task which I have proposed to myself, it is but natural I should look around me anxiously for friends among the men of integrity and talent—and I now call to mind, with pride, the many instances of good will, towards myself individually, which you evinced while I edited the Southern Messenger. [Continuing, he apologizes for his temerity in approaching his friend on such a subject, but begs for his support] even at the risk of being considered importunate. [Asks for his aid in securing subscribers in and about Charlottesville and closes with,—] I trust that you will excuse the abruptness of this letter, and attribute it rather to any cause than to a want of courtesy. With the highest respect. Yr. Ob. St. Edgar A. Poe."

After resigning the Editorship of the "Southern Literary Messenger," in 1837, Poe had been in New York for a time, and in the summer of 1838 went to Philadelphia, where, a year later, he became Associate-Editor of William E. Burton's "Gentlemen's Magazine," but resigned the next year because of a quarrel with the owner. About this time he issued the Prospectus mentioned in the above letter, but the magazine was never published, being first postponed by Poe's illness, later by his acceptance of the Editorship of "Graham's Magazine."

Lucian Minor, to whom the letter is addressed, was a writer of some note, a strong temperance advocate and a contributor of numerous articles on this subject to various periodicals, practiced law in Charlottesville, Virginia, for many years, and during the last years of his life was Professor of Law at William and Mary College. The friendship between Poe and Minor speaks well for Poe's choice of friends even though he could not live up to their standards of temperance.

The first work, "Al the Psalmes," is not quite perfect, it is wormed at the back on top, slightly affecting the text. The second work, "A Discription," wants a third part of the penultimate leaf; and the Act of Parliament in verse, which follows the same act in prose, wants the last leaf.

[No. 500. PSALTER.—Continued]

COPIES LOCATED: This vellum copy is unique. There is no copy in the British Museum nor the Bibliothèque Nationale; nor is it known to any bibliographical authority. This present copy has been examined by E. Gordon Duff, who pronounces it "magnificent and unique." (Books printed on Vellum, p. xiv.) There was a copy on paper in the Enchede sale, and another, also on paper, is in the Comte de Villa Franca collection.

From the Library of Thomas Brooke, F.S.A., Armitage Bridge, with bookplate.

Despite the great size of the Diocese of Utrecht, which was founded by St. Willibrod in 722, and covered all the northern Netherlands between the Scheldt and the Ems, its service books are excessively rare.

The printer of this book, Cornelius Heynrieszoon, letter-snyder, also printed a Dutch New Testament at Delft in 1534. These are the only books from his press. He was very probably the son of Henrik van Rotterdamme, letter-snyder, who printed at Antwerp towards the close of the Fifteenth Century. The addition of the term letter-snyder (type-cutter) to both their names adds additional likelihood to their being connected. Two other Stationers joined in the expenses of printing this Service Book, Bartholomeus Jacobszoon of Leyden and Jan Severszoon Cruipel of Amsterdam. The first, who lived "above the new Rhine," is not mentioned by Panzer. He is only found in Leyden in 1530, and from 1537 to 1546 was in Amsterdam. The second, Jan Severszoon of Gruipel, who lived "on the old bridge," was in business in Amsterdam between 1525 and 1540. He also is not mentioned by Panzer.

A NOTABLE COLLECTION OF LETTERS BY ROSSETTI

525. ROSSETTI (DANTE GABRIEL). 66 AUTOGRAPH LETTERS SIGNED, about 150 pages, 12mo, Sept. 1863 to June, 1869, several with autograph addressed envelope included. All written to Mr. Anderson Rose, Rossetti's solicitor and firm friend, most of them on note-paper embossed with the artist's monogram device and motto, "Frangas non flectas," and address, "16 Cheyne Walk, Chelsea," and all signed,—"D. G. Rossetti," excepting three which are signed with his initials only; also, several other manuscripts relating to Rossetti, one of which is signed by him. Each letter mounted or tipped to folio sheet and bound together in folio volume, full sapphire blue crushed levant morocco with gilt filigree ornament in center of sides, gilt lettered back, inside gilt dentelle borders, gilt edges, BY PRATT.

ONE OF THE MOST ATTRACTIVE COLLECTIONS OF AUTOGRAPH LETTERS OF THIS FAMOUS ARTIST EVER BROUGHT TOGETHER, and most interesting, as having been written during the period immediately after the death of his wife, 1863 to 1869.

The following extracts from some of the letters will show the interesting material contained in them,—

(No. 7) ". . . I am going to Paris at the end of this week if funds serve . . . I may, if I can find time before leaving, be going one evening to Astly's with Sandys. If a place was taken for you with us, could you come? . . ."

(No. 15) ". . . I saw your blue china (though not you) the other evening. That dragon bottle is the gem of your collection and a real stunner. Also the little polygonal bowl is a beauty . . ."

(No. 18) "The name of the sad undertaker in question is Neill, and his dark abode is in Eccleston Street South . . . where he dwells amid shattered hopes and pots, in the shadow as it were of the weeping willow pattern . . ." This playful letter probably refers to an accident happening to a valued piece of china, which the "undertaker" Neill was to repair. The note is surrounded by a black border done by the artist in writing ink as a token of mourning for the broken piece.

(No. 21) ". . . As to the drawing, I must tell you one thing about it, it is painted in body colour over a photograph from the picture. I do not mistrust it myself on that account, as I possess a similar thing by Seddon, now 10 years old, which is as good as the first day . . ." He also speaks of the low prices brought by his and other artists' work at the Plint sale. Mr. Plint was a patron of Rossetti, and the artist felt his death very keenly.

(No. 32) "I am decidedly desirous that none of my work should appear in any exhibition of any kind, until such time as, after many years abstinence, I make some start in an important way . . . It is particularly to my interest that, while I abstain from sending to the Academy, I should not appear to avail myself of minor opportunities, as though I mistrusted my chance in the best quarter. I regret to express a wish which may be opposed to yours but am obliged to do so by the plan of action I have laid down for myself . . ."

BAKER-KENNEDY-DOYLE AND OTHER COLLECTIONS

Third Session, Wednesday Evening, January 31st

(No. 36) "I am more surprised than I can say to hear this evening that, in spite of my distinct wish twice expressed to the contrary & acquiesced in by you, that the things of mine which you have are on the walls at the Arundel . . . I set great store by my independence of action as regards my works, and to have settled FOR ME what I am to do is completely destructive of all my plans . . . To have broken through a plan adopted for years on so slight an occasion . . . is more contrary to my most serious wishes . . . than anything else that could possibly have happened to me."

(No. 37) "I certainly thought that after what had passed between us, the pictures should not have been hung . . . The matter is unlucky, and if my letter yesterday was somewhat hotheaded, as I believe it was, I can only fall back on my belief that the cause for it ought not to have occurred . . ."

(No. 54) ". . . You may perhaps have heard from Sandys or some intimate (or course I do not bruit it abroad) that I am suffering from the most alarming of all ailments—a sudden and persistent deterioration of eyesight. I have seen oculists but I do not know what to think of the matter at present! . . . in some respects there are decidedly worse symptoms . . ."

(No. 56) "See here! What is a b——y affidavit? And can't we get one up?" This note is in regard to his Summons as a petty-juryman, from which he seeks exemption; letters 58 and 59 refer to the same matter, one of them enclosing a medical Certificate regarding the state of Rossetti's eyes, and copies of the Legal papers in the matter are also included in this collection.

(No. 64) "I am very sorry to have missed your and Whistler's visit yesterday evening . . . I should be particularly obliged for the loan of that pen-and-ink drawing of mine of Sir Lancelot in Queen Guinevere's Chamber, the worst of it is, I need it before tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon . . ."

It must not be thought that the foregoing extracts exhaust the interesting points presented in these one hundred and fifty pages of correspondence, as there are embodied many other personal touches illustrative of Rossetti's life, character and genius; mention of Whistler and other friends, and many references to his own work. Other letters contain matter relating to the financial blow he received by the death of Mr. Plint, one of his chief patrons; the difficulties he met with in converting a stable on his premises into a studio, and troubles over his lease. (Nos. 32, 36 and 37.)

His letters relating to the exhibition of his pictures at the Arundel Club are highly interesting, as they very emphatically contradict the statement made by Mr. Joseph Knight in his "Life of Rossetti," pp. 97 98, that "In connection with his membership of the Arundel Club . . . was an exhibition of pictures by members of the club, to which Rossetti sent several important works. No catalogue of this exhibition is preserved . . . Rossetti also exhibited some paintings at the Hogarth Club. Nor were these the only exhibitions to which he sent paintings or drawings."

526. ROWLANDSON (THOMAS) PLATES IN COLOR. ANGELO (H.). Hungarian & Highland Broad Sword, Twenty Four Plates, designed and etched by T. Rowlandson, under the direction of Messrs. H. Angelo and Son, Fencing Masters to the Light Horse Volunteers of London and Westminster. 24 colored plates, including title, by Thomas Rowlandson. Oblong 4to, half blue crushed levant morocco, gilt edges. [London:] H. Angelo, 1799

FIRST EDITION. FINE COPY OF THIS RARE WORK. PLATES WITH BRILLIANT COLORING AND GOOD MARGINS. Many copies of this work were broken up and the plates sold separately as examples of Rowlandson's work or for their military value, which accounts for the scarcity of fine complete copies.

Most of the plates are signed in the plate by Rowlandson, and all have the publisher's name below, with the date, "Sept. 1, 1798," with the exception of the eighth and ninth plates which have no imprint, the seventeenth which has no date, and the title which is dated 1799, and has the words, "Aquatinta by I. Hill," at foot.

Some copies of the First Edition are dated "1812," on title. The present copy is dated "1813," and the same date appears in the imprint on each plate. Grego does not mention any copy with earlier date than 1813. The Second Edition, which appeared the same year, had an additional leaf of Contents, and some alterations in the footnotes.

529. ROWLANDSON (THOMAS) PLATES IN COLOR. [COMBE (WM.).] The English Dance of Death, from the Designs of Thomas Rowlandson, with Metrical Illustrations by the Author of "Doctor Syntax." 2 Vols. With frontispiece, illustrated title, and 72 plates, all finely colored. 1815-1816

The English Dances of Death and Life are perhaps Rowlandson's most typical works. He drew the illustrations from characters of the surroundings in which he lived and moved, Combe merely writing the text around the illustrations.

This work with the exception of "Waverley" and "Tales of My Landlord" (first series) is the rarest of Scott's to find in first edition.

538. SCOTT (SIR WALTER). Peveril of the Peak. 4 vols., 8vo, half morocco.

Edinburgh, 1822

FIRST EDITION. Inserted are TWO IMPORTANT AUTOGRAPH LETTERS, SIGNED, of the Author to James Ballantyne, Sir Walter Scott's printer, and to R. Cadell, the Author's publisher. The letter to Ballantyne is dated Nov. 1, 1828, and refers to his "Peveril." Sir Walter states:

"I send you a lot of copy with the proof this day received . . . I do not understand if you reckon on the proceeds of "PEVERIL" as part of the month's funds—it ("PEVERIL") will certainly be out. Nor do I know if you compute your own but I conclude you do . . . I have £2,500 to pay this season last instalment (for the Abbotsford Estate) of Land. For this I have £1,500 provided but I shall want a bill of yours for £500 &c of Constable for the like sum at 3 and 4 months which I can easily make circutable. I cannot make you understand my tale of the dark ages. But I shall want very much Duclos's Life of Louis XI, and the account of the private life of the French by somebody whose name I have forgot." Etc.

The second letter to Cadell is as follows: "I send you 'Peveril' puffed up to the proper size, I hope, or very near it. It will be necessary that, when the press goes on it, it shall continue without stopping or confusing it with other things, that we be assured against repetitions which such a mass of notes written at different times are extremely likely to occur unless the whole are reviewed in a connected form."

LETTERS FROM SIR WALTER REFERRING TO HIS NOVELS ARE OF THE GREATEST RARITY.

539. SCOTT (SIR WALTER). Waverley Novels. *Illustrated with upwards of 2000 engravings on steel and wood, especially drawn for this edition by Stanfield; H. K. FIRST EDITION. Specially printed for a noble patron.

The two volumes are printed in a neat Italic type and have well-engraved ornamental initials. In the second part are three very quaint oval woodcuts of the flight of Pompey from Brindisi, of the method of conveying boats overland, and of the opposing camps of Cæsar and Pompey in Thessaly. The device on the title-page was engraved for some special purpose—probably FOR PRESENTATION TO A WAR-LIKE AND NOBLE PATRON. It has in the centre two figures, one a warrior, Mars, the other the goddess of Peace and Plenty, at the back of the former are warlike emblems, behind the latter fruit and flowers; above is a coat of arms, charged with a fess, supported by two lions, and with a curious crest of a half-length figure between branches. The shield is surrounded by the collar of the Order of St. Michael. At the base is a monogram of the letters F. S. D. H. THE INITIALS OF THE PATRON FOR WHOM IT WAS DESIGNED.

Yulema

Sept. 18 1892

To the Honorable

The High Justice of Samoa

Sir,

I learn from the B. & O. July-ists,

Charles Taylor, that you are in quest of information as to my dealings with Mataga. I never desired these to be secret. It was my design to bring about a reconciliation between Mataga and Laupapa, in pursuance of which I can do good, and ascertain the terms on which he would be willing to accept it. That the negotiation has fallen through, that I have never been able to meet Laupapa, is what you, Sir, are perhaps more able to explain than I. Please excuse my queries; I am not ashamed of it. We have well you would prefer me, and your reasons for that preference. Should you succeed at last in making me, you will have succeeded against many difficulties, and if a war in Samoa be the result of the Treaty of Peace, will have entitled myself to reward.

This information, any details that you would desire, are at your service, and from me. It is true I have refused to see you privately in my residence, it is true I thought you were of my nation and a man I could little have called on. But you are not, and I am not so uncivil but what I will answer. As you have summoned me officially, and I shall come and speak the truth in public. You have stopped my correspondence, I thought you had just said, and said nothing. But to me this I do hope I hope to you telling a Charles Taylor, and seeking to terrify him by threats of deportation into betraying the confidence of others. Had you succeeded in your intention, the last word would have been

"Sir, I learn from the British half-caste, Charles Taylor, that you are in quest of information as to my dealings with Mataafa. I never desired these to be secret. It was my design to bring about a reconciliation between Mataafa and Loufefa. . . . That the negotiation has fallen through, that I have never been able to meet Loufefa, is what you, Sir, are perhaps more able to explain than I. Peace was my purpose; I am not ashamed of it. We know well you would prefer war. . . ." He offers to give any information desired on the matter, in writing or in a public examination, adds that he objects to "your falling on Charles Taylor, and seeking to terrify him by threats of deportation into betraying the confidence of others. . . ." and closes with the statement that he is writing to the British consul to enquire if such a threat could be carried out. Signed,—"Your obedient servant, Robert Louis Stevenson."

That Stevenson's feeling against the Chief Justice was not as bitter as this letter would seem to indicate, is shown by a letter to his friend, Sidney Colvin, written the day previous to the above, in which he says that he had met the Chief Justice at a Ball a few days before, and that, though he had tried to preserve his dignity, "the deuce of it is that, personally, I love this man . . . that very morning I had been writing most villainous attacks upon him for the Time; and we meet and smile, and—damn it!—like each other." Third Session, Wednesday Evening, January 31st

FIRST EDITION OF THACKERAY'S
"SECOND FUNERAL OF NAPOLEON"

587. [THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE).] The Second Funeral of Napoleon: In Three Letters to Miss Smith, of London. And The Chronicle of the Drum. By Mr. M. A. Titmarsh. With front wrapper containing picture of Napoleon by Thackeray, frontispiece and 3 full-page woodcuts. Square 16mo, ORIGINAL GRAY PICTORIAL WRAPPERS, title of frontispiece slightly cut into in trimming. Enclosed in cloth slip-case, leather label.

London: Hugh Cunningham, 1841

THE VERY RARE FIRST EDITION, WITH THE PICTURE OF NAPOLEON ON WRAPPER HAVING THE SIX LINES ON THE CHEEK, the reprint having only four; the title, "Tomb in the Chapel of the Invalides," on frontispiece, the reprint being without title; and five stars on page 120, the reprint having only four. Also, leaf at end advertising "Dinner Reminiscences," by Mr. M. A. Titmarsh.

As this work was written before Thackeray had become famous it attracted very little attention, although one of the finest bits of writing he ever did and was lost to circulation almost immediately, which accounts for its extreme rarity at the present day.

With book stamp of John Bowes, 1842, on fly-leaf.

588. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). "Our Street," By Mr. M. A. Titmarsh. With 16 colored plates, including frontispiece and title-page, and one woodcut, uncolored, all by Thackeray. Small square 8vo, ORIGINAL PINK GLAZED PICTORIAL BOARDS, gilt edges, binding slightly time-soiled, back repaired. Enclosed in cloth box-folder, with lettered leather label, in cloth slip-case.

London: Chapman and Hall, 1848

FIRST EDITION, FIRST ISSUE, WITH THE PLATES COLORED. COMPLETE, WITH THE LEAF OF ADVERTISEMENT WITH IMPRINT ON VERSO, AT END. Printed by Vizetelly. The illustration on cover is not repeated in the book; there was no plain title-page. Thackeray's second "Christmas Book."

FINE COPY OF "VANITY FAIR" IN PARTS

589. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). Vanity Fair. A Novel without a Hero. With illustrations on steel and wood by the author. 20 parts in 19, 8vo, original yellow pictorial wrappers, with advertisements, uncut. Enclosed in cloth slip-case, leather label.

London: Published at the Punch Office, January, 1847, to July, 1848

FIRST EDITION, ORIGINAL ISSUE IN THE MONTHLY PARTS, COMPLETE, WITH ALL THE WRAPPERS INTACT AND INCLUDING ALL THE ADVERTISEMENTS AND SLIPS, with the exception of the Advertisements in Parts I and XVI, and Slip in last number. THE BACKS ARE UNBROKEN, WITHOUT REPAIRS OR RESTORATIONS, AND ALL IN FIRST ISSUE STATE, excepting Nos. XVII and XIX-XX, which have no date on front cover and are probably second issue.

A VERY FINE COPY, AND ONE WHICH WILL BEAR CLOSE COMPARISON WITH THE AUSTIN, VAN DUZER, BRAYTON IVES AND FREDERICK CORDER COPIES, SAID TO BE THE FINEST COPIES IN EXISTENCE, AND STILL HOLD ITS HIGH POSITION, as may be seen from the following details,—

(1) The yellow wrappers are all complete, with all the brackets, dates, etc. in correct FIRST ISSUE STATE, aside from the two mentioned above which lack dates, the numbers all being without brackets from No. XIV on, excepting No. XVI, as Mr. Van Duzer calls for them to be printed; and are ALL CLEAN AND CRISP, WITH NO BREAKS OR CHIPS, APPEARING ALMOST AS UNTOUCHED AND FRESH AS WHEN ISSUED.

(2) The first five numbers have the word "Contents" only on inside front cover, which is the correct state, as shown by Mr. Van Duzer.

(3) The back wrappers to Parts III, IV and V are all CORRECT FIRST STATE AND UNBROKEN, Part III having the three lines beginning, "The Best Coffee," "Coffees mellow," and "Inferior kinds," respectively, and, at bottom of page, below the schedule, "At Wholesale Prices, but we may say at merchants' prices . . ."; Parts IV and V having four lines beginning, "The Best Coffee," "Coffees mellow," "Good strong," and "Inferior kinds," respectively, and, at bottom of page, "At Wholesale Prices, but At Merchants' Prices," these two parts being identical. Mr. Livingston in his Bibliography of "Vanity Fair" in the Boston Transcript said that all three numbers had the same back wrapper, but this was an error, and the above is the correct FIRST STATE, as shown by the unbroken backs on this copy, in which it also agrees with Mr. Van Duzer's and the Corder copies.

(4) The back wrappers to Parts IX and X are CORRECT FIRST STATE AND UNBROKEN, Part IX, inside of cover, reading, "Advertisement. | Cheap Edition of the Novels and Tales of | Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton Bart. | Messrs. Chapman & Hall beg to announce . . . | Prospectuses will be ready for distribution with the Periodicals on the 30th of September. |—Stooping of the Shoulders . . . |—To Invigorate the Constitution . . . |" etc. Part X, inside of cover, reading, "Advertisements. | Cheap Edition of the Novels and Tales of | Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton, Bart. | On the 30th of October, | Messrs. Chapman and Hall will issue | . . . | For Prospectus and Specimen see the end of this Magazine. |—Stooping of the Shoulders . . . |—Scrofula, or King's Evil, Curable . . . |" etc. Mr. Livingston is the only bibliographer of "Vanity Fair" who had ever noted this difference in the advertisements, and he did not describe the wrappers in enough detail for those following him to realize that there should be a difference, until the Corder copy came to light with the correct wrappers. THIS IS ONLY THE SECOND COPY RECORDED, THEREFORE, WITH THE CORRECT WRAPPERS TO THESE TWO PARTS.

(5) The text has all the FIRST ISSUE "points," including the heading in rustic type at beginning of text, the FULL, UNALTERED TEXT IN CHAPTER VI, Which was later considerably cut down and revised, the "Marquis of Steyne" woodcut on page 336, the name "Mr. Pitt," on page 453.

BAKER-KENNEDY-DOYLE AND OTHER COLLECTIONS

Third Session, Wednesday Evening, January 31st

UNUSUALLY FINE EXAMPLES OF THACKERAY'S WORK, which Thackeray loved more than he did his talent as a writer. The group comprises,—

- (1) WATERCOLOR: Three-quarter figure of a man with black hair and heavy beard, in black velvet robe, seated, one arm resting on the pedestal of a pillar beside him. Height,  $4\frac{1}{2}$ ; width,  $3\frac{1}{4}$  inches. VERY FINE;
- (2) WATERCOLOR: Half-length figure of an Indian woman, head in profile, one shoulder and breast exposed, holding what appears to be meant for a child against the other breast. Height,  $4\frac{3}{8}$ ; width,  $3\frac{1}{4}$  inches. A MOST UNUSUAL SUBJECT FOR THACKERAY AND BEAUTIFULLY EXECUTED;
- (3) SEPIA WASH DRAWING: Unfinished sketch of a student with the Devil standing behind him, probably intended as a Faust sketch. Height,  $5\frac{3}{4}$ ; length,  $6\frac{1}{4}$  inches;
- (4) PENCIL DRAWING: Interior scene, a priest kneeling at prayer before a table, another man seated in high-backed chair back of him, and a third man standing at further side. Height,  $6\frac{1}{2}$ ; length,  $6\frac{1}{2}$  inches;
- (5) PENCIL DRAWING: Statue of a knight or king in armor, upon a raised platform against a pillar, indistinct figures kneeling before him. Height,  $8\frac{3}{8}$ ; width, 6 inches.

ORIGINAL PROOF SHEETS OF ARTICLES OR STORIES BY THACKERAY, SALA AND LEVER. ALL WITH CORRECTIONS IN THE AUTO- GRAPH OF THACKERAY

Since the dispersal of the late Major Lambert's unrivalled collection of Thackerayana, it does not appear that any very notable items have changed hands by public auction, and the present opportunity of acquiring a number of exceeding interest is not likely to be soon equalled, as, of course, the great libraries, where most of the Thackeray MSS. are now preserved, will never release their treasures for the enrichment of private collectors. The present collection includes some items which have never before appeared in any catalogue, and special attention may be here directed to the poem, "Vanitas Vanitatum," to Lever's contribution, and to "Philip," this last being MOST IMPORTANT, as it contains over 100 lines of manuscript additions in Thackeray's writing, including the original pencil draft of his famous song, "Doctor Luther," as well as many autograph changes throughout the proof. All the items, showing as they do, the progressive stages of composition in the printed proof sheets with their autograph corrections, come closely behind the manuscript portions in interest. Nor must Thackeray's artistic work be neglected. The initial cuts with which he embellished his articles are always delightful, however much they fall below rigid art standards, and the presence here of one cut which was cancelled before publication, and of another original pencil sketch also discarded for another design, is worthy of mention. The collection includes also the ORIGINAL PROSPECTUS for the Cornhill Magazine, of which only a few copies are known, and a number of original "Thorns" (letters from would-be contributors) are included with the printed article regarding these "Thorns in an Editor's Cushion."

593. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). ORIGINAL PROOFS of portions of his Novel, "Lovel the Widower," comprising Chapters I, III, IV and V. With India paper proof in quarto of illustration by Thackeray for Chapter VI, with title, "Lovel's Mothers," written on proof in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH. Folio, 8vo and 4to, smaller leaves tipped to stubs, bound together in folio, full claret crushed French levant morocco, janseneste, inside gilt dentelle borders, uncut, BY RIVIÈRE. [London,] 1860

EXCEEDINGLY RARE AND INTERESTING PROOFS, showing the changes in text made by Thackeray in the different printings of the proofs, and with THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH WRITING ON THE INDIA PROOF. There are a few other corrections made in ink on the proofs, probably not by Thackeray, and a number of pencilled notes made by a recent cataloguer on margins showing changes in text, etc. The text as it appeared in the magazine varied considerably from these galleys.

The Proofs comprise,—CHAPTER I, two proofs, first of 9pp., second of 11pp. with material additions; CHAPTER III, three proofs, first and second without Initial Woodcut, third, "Revise," with Initial and some minor variations in text; CHAPTER IV, two proofs, first marked "Proofs. No. 4," before the Initial Woodcut, paged (394) 395 to 407 and ending before the conclusion of the chapter as published in the magazine, and second proof, repaged (385) 386 to 403, without the Initial but made up for the press with "Cornhill Magazine" heading and extended to conclusion of the chapter. (In the magazine the final paging was [385] to 402, some space having been saved in the setting up;) CHAPTER V, one proof, before Initial, paged, 1 to 15; and the India paper proof of illustration for Chapter VI as mentioned above.

The complete novel was published in Cornhill Magazine, beginning in the first number, the parts here present having appeared in Vol. I, pp. 44 to 66, 330 to 345, 385 to 402, 583 to 597 (January, March to May, 1860).

594. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). ORIGINAL PROOFS of his Sketches, "Roundabout Papers," Nos. I, III to X, and of, "A Roundabout Journey." With several corrections and alterations in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH. Folio folded to 8vo, and 8vo, bound together in 8vo volume; [Also] Thorns in Thackeray's Editorial Cushion: 14 Autograph Letters addressed to Thackeray by would-be contributors. Various sizes, each tipped to stub and bound together in 4to volume. Together, 2 vols. 8vo and 4to, full claret crushed French levant morocco, janseneste, inside gilt dentelle borders, uncut, BY RIVIÈRE. [London, etc.] 1860

FINE COLLECTION OF PROOFS, WITH A NUMBER OF CORRECTIONS IN THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH, and showing many variations in text in the different printings of the proofs, as well as variations from the text as finally printed in Cornhill Magazine. There are a number of pencilled notes made by a recent cataloguer on the margins, showing the changes in text in the different printings.

The Proofs comprise,—No. I, "On a Lazy Idle Boy," one proof, without the Initial Woodcut; No. III, "On Ribbons," two copies of proof of first three pages, ending with a double-rule as though intended to end there, and proof of complete article, 10pp., showing many variations from the published article; No. IV, "On Some Late Great Victories," two copies of proof, 6pp., both with Initial Woodcut, first with title, "On a Late Great Victory," with correction of two words in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH on page 5, second with title corrected to "Some" and "Victories," and with several corrections and additional words in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH on pages 4 and 5. A VERY IMPORTANT FEATURE IS THAT THE INITIAL WOODCUT IS ENTIRELY DIFFERENT FROM THE ONE WHICH APPEARED IN THE MAGAZINE. Very probably these are the only two copies existing on this particular woodcut after a rejected drawing by Thackeray. Why the design was rejected is not very apparent, as it is more pleasing than the substituted cut; No. V, "Thorns in the Cushion," two proofs, first 7pp., without Initial Woodcut, and with eight lines on page 6 which are omitted in the following proof, and second proof, 7pp., with Initial Woodcut and with eight lines of new matter added on page 7. On pages 5 and 7 are several corrections of punctuation and three words in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH. Accompanying this proof of the "Thorns," is the VOLUME OF REAL THORNS, being 14 genuine letters from various parts of the world, addressed to Thackeray by candidates for literary distinction. These include epistles, absurdly familiar, appeals on the ground of great need; impudent letters, and other varieties. A really curious lot, and decidedly

"Thorny" as Thackeray describes them in his delightful article on the subject; No. VI, "On Screens in Dining-Rooms," two proofs, 5pp. each, first without, second with Initial Woodcut. The two proofs differ considerably on page 5, and the article in the magazine is made up from both; No. VII, "Tunbridge Toys," one proof, 5pp., with Initial Woodcut, with office corrections only. The peculiarity which it presents is that it was apparently originally intended for a separate article and not for one of the "Roundabout Papers;" No. VIII, "De Juventute," two proofs, first, 5 pp., without Initial Woodcut, with printed title, "On George and the Dragon," crossed out and the new title, "De Juventute," in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH to replace it, on pages 3 and 4 is a deletion of 40 lines, and at foot of page 3 four lines are added in THACKERAY'S WRITING, on page 5 is a deletion of 8 lines and 8 words are ADDED BY THACKERAY; second proof, revised and extended to 12pp., with the Initial Woodcut, on page 3 in three places the word "Saturday," is crossed out and the word "Superfine," WRITTEN IN BY THACKERAY, and on page 9 the foot-note is deleted; "A Roundabout Journey. Notes of a Week's Holiday," two proofs, first 8pp., without Initial Woodcut, entitled, "Railway Reveries," second extended to 18pp., with Woodcut, title altered to, "A Roundabout Journey.—Railway Reverie," afterwards published with the title as given above; No. IX, "On a Joke I once heard from the late Thomas Hood," two proofs, first, 7pp. ending with double-rule, without Initial Woodcut, second extended to 9 pp., without Woodcut. Differs at end from the published article; No. X, "Round about the Christmas Tree," two proofs, first, 7pp., without Initial Woodcut, with the words, "I should like to see a proof with the initial letter when done," written on first page in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH, and several corrections two of which are also in THACKERAY'S HAND. This first note is of GREAT INTEREST, as it refers to the singularly happy back-view sketch of "Thackeray at the Play," by Frederick Walker. Second proof, 7pp., with Initial Woodcut. Neither proof has the "Roundabout Papers" heading, and two blank spaces in each are filled up in the magazine articles.

These "Roundabout Papers" were published in Cornhill Magazine, Vol. I, pp. 124 to 128, 631 to 640, 755 to 760; Vol. II, pp. 122 to 128, 252 to 256, 380 to 384, 501 to 512, 623 to 640, 752 to 760; Vol. III, 250 to 256 (January, May to December, 1860, February, 1861).

595. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). SALA (G. A.). ORIGINAL PROOFS of Sala's article, "William Hogarth," Nos. IV, VI and VIII. With several corrections in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH. 8vo, full claret crushed French levant morocco, janseneste, inside gilt dentelle borders, uncut, BY RIVIÈRE.

[London,] 1860

Most of the corrections in these papers were made by Sala himself, but there are a few which MUST BE CREDITED TO THACKERAY, and there is also Thackeray's connection in the editorial supervision which he exercised in softening down Sala's too-outspoken descriptions of Hogarth's time. The Proofs comprise,—No. IV, "The Painter's Progress," 22pp. with a number of deletions, and several corrections in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH; No. VI, "The Rake's Progress," 15pp. with deletion. The magazine article was 16pp.; No. VIII, "The Shadow of the Forty-five," 13pp. with two words in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH. The note on pages 2 and 3 was not published, and the published article was fully three pages longer than this proof. Published in Cornhill Magazine, Vol. I, pp. 561 to 581; Vol. II, pp. 97 to 112, 354 to 369 (May, July, September, 1860).

596. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). ORIGINAL PROOFS of his Articles, "The Four Georges." With a number of corrections in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH. 8vo, full claret crushed French levant morocco, janseneste, inside gilt dentelle borders, uncut, BY RIVIÈRE.

[London,] 1860

EXCEEDINGLY FINE SET OF PROOFS, CONTAINING MANY CORRECTIONS IN THACKERAY'S HAND, and showing numerous variations in text in the proofs and the published articles.

The Proofs comprise,—GEORGE I, four complete proofs, the published sketch extracted from the magazine, and one page of additional proof, as follows,—(A) proof, 19pp., without Initial Woodcut, with note, "Revise with initial cut," in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH, and word on page 9 also written by Thackeray; (B) Revise, with Initial Woodcut, otherwise practically same as previous proof; (C) Revise, text same as before, title crossed out and "The Four Georges Sketches of Manners Morals Court & Town Life. I George the First," written in by Mr. George Smith; (D) Revise, with addition of two female portraits on page 5 without names; (E) Revise, portraits on page 6, with footnote relating to them. This is the complete published article extracted from the magazine, and begins with the paragraph which is placed at the end in the early proofs; (F) Single leaf, with "For next number," written in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH. This page is headed, "I. George the First—continued," which, in conjunction with the note on it, makes it difficult to tell at what stage in the evolution of the article it was written. The paragraph is the concluding one in the early proofs and was placed at the beginning in the published sketch; GEORGE II, one proof, 17pp., with Initial Woodcut, and with final corrections; GEORGE III, two proofs, first, 20pp., without Initial Woodcut and portraits. Evidently printed from the MS. used on his American lecture tour, second proof, pp. (257) to 272, without Initial Woodcut but with the four portraits, with name written under each in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH, and the complete published article, extracted from the magazine; GEORGE IV, three proofs, 22pp. each, all without Initial Woodcut, with various corrections, and the complete published article, with Initial Woodcut, extracted from the magazine.

Published in Cornhill Magazine, Vol. II, pp. 1 to 20, 175 to 191, 257 to 277, 385 to 406 (July to October, 1860).

597. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). ORIGINAL PROOFS of his Poem, "Vanitas Vanitatum." With a number of corrections and alterations in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH AND HIS AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURE AND INITIALS. 8vo, full claret crushed French levant morocco, janseneste, inside gilt dentelle borders, uncut, BY RIVIÈRE. [London,] 1860

A VALUABLE THACKERAY ITEM, SHOWING MANY CHANGES IN TEXT AND ARRANGEMENT IN HIS AUTOGRAPH AND WITH HIS FULL AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURE ON ONE SHEET AND INITIALS ON ANOTHER. Comprises a series of 11 proofs, as follows,—(1) 8 verses, one page, with misprint "Junior's" uncorrected on 29th line; (2) Same, with AUTOGRAPH INITIALS,—"W. M. T.;" (3) Same, with printed initials; (4) 16 verses, 2pp. on 2 sheets, with "Junior's" corrected to "Janin's" and Greek word corrected on first page, line 27, on second page, crossed out and, "Here at St. Peters of Cornhill," written in margin, two letters corrected, 4 lines written at foot of page and again crossed out, and AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURE,—"W. M. Thackeray," at end, ALL IN THACKERAY'S HAND, and several notations not by Thackeray at top of first page; (5) 8 verses, one page, with line 4, in Greek, four substituted words in fifth Verse, the correction, "Janin's," and an additional line in footnote, ALL IN THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH; (6) Revise of the previous proof with all corrections made; (7) 15 verses, 2 pp. on one sheet, with the verse of "honest Janin's joke," omitted; (8) Same; (9) 16 verses, the omitted verse being restored; (10) Proof as made up for the magazine, with "Fortune's doings," "Fate disastrous," and "changes, rises, ruins!" in fifth verse; (11) Same, with 5th verse altered back again to,—"Fate's surprises," "adverse fortune," and "changes, ruins, rises," ALL IN THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH.

Published in Cornhill Magazine, Vol. II, pp. 59 60 (July, 1860).

598. THACKERAY (WILLIAM MAKEPEACE). LEVER (CHARLES). ORIGINAL PROOF of Lever's article, "How I quitted Naples." With a large number of additions and corrections in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH. 8vo, full claret crushed French levant morocco, janseneste, inside gilt dentelle borders, uncut, BY RIVIÈRE. [London,] 1860

EDITED AND CORRECTED THROUGHOUT IN THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH. Proof, 22pp. Published in Cornhill Magazine, Vol. II, pp. 192 to 210 (August, 1860).

This contribution by Charles Lever to Cornhill Magazine is freely edited by Thackeray, who has deleted passages, some of considerable length, and phrases on nearly every page, and supplied emendations in over thirty places, there being OVER 70 WORDS IN THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH. The friendship existing between the two men, combined probably with the distance between their abiding places, would account for a real carte-blanche being given Thackeray in regard to this article.

On the reverse of the last leaf (blank) are six pencilled monograms in different designs, of the initials, "A I T," and one single letter "T" which are apparently DRAWN BY THACKERAY, and intended for his daughter, Miss Anne Isabella Thackeray.

[London,] 1860

[See Reproduction of Autograph]

PROBABLY ONE OF THE FINEST THACKERAY PROOFS EVER OFFERED FOR SALE, CONTAINING, AS IT DOES, AUTOGRAPH MATERIAL WHICH WOULD MAKE A FAIR SIZED MANUSCRIPT IN ITSELF, ASIDE FROM ITS INTEREST IN CONNECTION WITH THACKERAY'S WRITING. THE MANUSCRIPT OF "Doctor Luther," IS A MOST VALUABLE ITEM ALONE.

The Proofs comprise,—CHAPTER IV, 10pp. before Initial Woodcut, with notes in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH at head of first page regarding the cut and giving title for same, changes in headings, etc., additional words and corrections on several other pages, and inserted page of over 200 words in MANUSCRIPT BY THACKERAY; CHAPTER V, pp. 11 to 23, before Initial Woodcut, with an ORIGINAL PENCIL SKETCH, at beginning, of a bishop with miter in form of the letter "W," the text here beginning, "We have had no mention," this was later altered to read, "Having had occasion," and another cut used for the Initial Letter. There are several corrections in the proof by Thackeray; CHAPTER VI, two proofs, first, 11pp., before Initial Woodcut, with four lines (85 words) in ink in THACKERAY'S AUTOGRAPH on page 10, and a number of other corrections in his hand; second, Revise of the previous proof 11pp. with Initial Woodcut and all corrections made; CHAPTER VII, proof of pages 17 to 22 only (lacking pp. 12 to 16), before Initial Woodcut, with ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT INSERTED OF THE SONG, "Doctor Luther," written in pencil on the back of an Autograph Letter Signed by Mr. George Smith and with envelope of the letter also inserted, and with Thackeray's directions to the printer to "Space the song well out," and print heading in "Gothic," also pencilled addition in margin, 65 words, altering the text to fit in the song; and Revised Complete Proof of Chapter VII, pp. 12 to 23, without Initial Woodcut, with all the additions and corrections of the previous proof embodied in same, including that of a quarto page of AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT OF OVER 600 WORDS which is inserted, and which extends the Chapter to 23 pages instead of the 22 pages of the previous proof. The published text was further extended by an additional ten lines not included in the present proofs. The revised proof of Chapter VII follows the Revise of Chapter VI, with the first proof at the end of the volume. Notes of the variations in the printed text from the proofs here listed, are made in the copy of Cornhill which is sold with this collection.

Published in Cornhill Magazine, Vol. III, pp. 166 to 189, 270 to 293 (February and March, 1861).

WASHINGTON'S OWN LETTER-PRESS COPY

614. WASHINGTON (GEORGE—President of the United States). ORIGINAL LETTER-PRESS COPY OF AN AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED BY WASHINGTON, 25pp. small 4to, Mount Vernon, 15 July, 1797. To William Strickland, Esqr. With India proof portrait of Washington. Neat pen-and-ink title-page supplied. Bound in small 4to volume, full crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt lettered on front cover and back strip, inside gilt dentelle borders, Morris-paper linings and end-papers, gilt top, BY MACDONALD.

WASHINGTON'S OWN LETTER-PRESS COPY, TAKEN OFF ON PAPER SPECIALLY MADE FOR HIS USE AND WITH HIS WATERMARK. Some parts of the letter are illegible, owing to uneven pressure in copying, portions of the writing having been gone over with pencil to bring out the writing more clearly, and the last two leaves have some small holes eaten by the ink, and in folds, a few margins strengthened.

This copy was made by the process invented by James Watt in 1780, and was very little used at this early date. The method was similar to that employed at the present day, the copy being procured by the use of specially prepared ink and pressure applied to the letter, thus transferring a copy to a dampened sheet of very thin paper.

The letter is of unusual length, and most interesting, opening with an apology for not having answered letters received, saying,—"The letter arrived in the middle of an important session of Congress, wch became more interesting as it drew nearer to its close inasmuch as it was limited by the Constitution to the 3d of March, and on that day was to give political dissolution to the House of Representatives, a third part of the Senate, and the Chief Magistrate of the United States I postponed from the pressure of business occasioned thereby the acknowledgment of all private letters which did not require immediate answers until I should be seated under my own Vine and Fig Tree . . ." thus referring to his retirement from the Presidency. The letter continues to explain further delay owing to the condition his estate at Mount Vernon was in after his eight years absence in Washington, and after further apology takes up the discussion of various agricultural details and projects.

'Pour Whistler!' You heard on all sides! I leave you to think what must have been that moment to me!"*

Enclosed in folio half red morocco slip-case, with inner moire silk protecting wrapper.

IMPORTANT WOODROW WILSON MANUSCRIPT. The original typed manuscript of this valuable historical contribution, signed in full, and accompanied by the galley-proofs of the same. The unusual cleanness of the author's original copy is notable. Both for the importance of the subject and the interest in its author, this may be regarded as an item of great interest.

AUTHOR'S ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT

635. WILSON (WOODROW—President of the United States). ORIGINAL Type-written Manuscript of Ex-President Wilson's article,—“The Author and Signers of the Declaration of Independence.” 11½ pages of foolscap, with a number of corrections in the AUTHOR'S AUTOGRAPH; with corrected galley-proofs (mounted) of the same; [ALSO] 2 Letters Signed, each 1p. 8vo, St. Hubert's, Essex County, N. J., July 30, and August 17, 1907, to Colonel Harvey, the first saying he would be much complimented if it were published, the second to the Editor, North American Review, thanking him for the galley-proofs. A MOST IMPORTANT original typewritten manuscript and galley-proofs, WITH CORRECTIONS AND CHANGES ON BOTH IN THE AUTHOR'S AUTOGRAPH.

The article is one of considerable historical importance, originally delivered as a speech at the Jamestown Exposition, in 1907. It incorporates a number of the author's convictions in regard to the purpose of the Signers, which he was later to put into practice.

AUTOGRAPHED COPIES OF WILSON'S WORKS

636. WILSON (WOODROW). A Collection of the Writings of Woodrow Wilson Together, 10 vols. 12mo and 8vo, original cloth and boards, each volume in a half morocco slip-case. New York and Boston, 1908-1916

Mere Literature, and Other Essays. Boston, no date;

On Being Human. FIRST EDITION. New York, 1916;

The President of the United States. New York, 1916.

This vivid portrayal of “The President of the United States,” which appears now for the first time in separate form, was written by Woodrow Wilson when he was President of Princeton University in 1908. At that time he had no thought that he would occupy the great office of which he wrote. It is, therefore, of peculiar interest to note how theory and practice have met.

637. WITCHCRAFT. SCOT (REGINALD). The discoverie of witchcraft, Wherein the lewde dealing of witches and witchmongers is notablie detected . . . Heerevnto is added a treatise upon the nature and substance of spirits and diuels, &c.: all latelie written by Reginald Scot Esquire. . . . Black letter. Numerous woodcuts in text and two additional unnumbered leaves with cuts; woodcut initials. Small 4to, full crimson crushed levant morocco, triple gilt fillets on sides, gilt back and inside borders, gilt edges, BY RIVIÈRE, some small tears in title skillfully repaired.

Imprinted at London by William Brome, 1584

FIRST EDITION. NICE, CLEAN COPY. VERY RARE, AS ALL COPIES WERE ORDERED BURNED BY KING JAMES I, ON HIS ACCESSION TO THE ENGLISH THRONE, IN 1603.

Scot wrote this work with the philanthropic aim of staying the persecution against those believed to be witches, and he wrote with a remarkable boldness and an insight far in advance of his age. King James VI of Scotland, who had written on the other side of the question, was much incensed against the writer, and on his accession to the English throne ordered all copies of Scott's book burned. More interesting is it to know that Shakespeare drew his picture of the witches in "Macbeth," from his study of Scot's book, and that Middleton in his play of "The Witch," was equally indebted to the same source.
